

Prattsburgh Presbyterians Lay Corner Stone of New Church

Last Sunday Marked the Rising of the New Church Edifice Upon the Ashes of the Old One

Prattsburgh, June 30.—The corner stone of the new Presbyterian church in this village was laid with appropriate ceremonies on Sunday afternoon. It was a most inspiring occasion, and although the weather was threatening during the entire day, and the wind blew a gale, the throng that gathered felt the thrill of the hour, for that hour marked the rising upon the ashes of the old, the new church, for which most of the money has already been provided. The old church was established in 1861, and was the oldest Presbyterian church in this part of the country.

WORMS DISCOURAGE HOGS FROM GROWING

LICE ALSO MUST BE FOUGHT BY FARMER WHO WOULD PRODUCE PORK AND MAKE A PROFIT

Vermis such as worms, lice, and the like, may keep the hogs from growing and cost the farmer in dollars and cents much more than the time and expense of fighting them according to the state college of agriculture at Ithaca.

In fact, the college goes further and says that most farms where hogs have been kept for any length of time on the same premises are infested with parasites which will give trouble if they are not controlled.

There are several kinds of worms that infest hogs, and each kind requires a different treatment. If hogs are suspected of being infested with worms, the owners should get in touch with a veterinarian, the college states.

One farmer of which the college learned had about 75 head of pigs averaging between 50 and 75 pounds.

There were throngs present to witness the ceremonies.

The ministers from out of town taking part in the ceremonies were: Rev. E. B. McChes, of Rochester, and Rev. Elmer J. Stuart, of Corning, former pastors of the church; and Rev. A. B. Schofield, of Pulteney; Rev. George H. Allen, Jr., of Bath; Rev. George L. Tappan, of Hammondsport; and the Rev. Robert S. Jones, of Avoca. The program had been arranged by the present able pastor of the church, the Rev. William Hawthorne, under whose wise leadership the new church is rising rapidly, with money pouring in from old friends from far and near. It was a day that will be long remembered by all present, and it marks the beginning of a new inspiration for the Presbyterians of Prattsburgh.

These pigs became stunted and made very little gains, and some of them died. Upon inspection they were found badly infested with round worms and with lice. They were then successfully treated by a veterinarian.

These pigs were also treated for lice. A prepared dip in a large barrel being used. The pigs were small enough to be easily handled and were immersed in the barrel of dip. This treatment was repeated in a week's time to get the lice or nits that were left from the previous dipping.

They were then transferred to a fresh pasture where they were finished for the early fall market.

Why He Went Faster

A Swede purchased an automobile and was seen driving down the street about 60 miles an hour. A policeman yelled at him to stop, but instead of slowing up the Swede increased his speed. When the officer finally caught up with him he roared:

"Why didn't you stop! Didn't you hear me holler back there?"

"Oh, was dat you dat yelled? I thought it was somebody I run over."

POULTRY JUDGING TAUGHT AT SCHOOL

SHORT COURSES TO BE GIVEN AT STATE AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE AT CORNELL JULY 7 TO 12

"The best way to meet the low prices of eggs and poultry is to discard the unprofitable birds and select for breeding the most profitable individuals in the flock."

This suggestion comes from the poultry workers at the state agricultural college at Cornell University, who say that they believe a week spent at the judging school at Ithaca, which will be held this summer from July 7 to 12, should enable any intelligent person to go about selecting birds from his own flock with reasonable confidence and accuracy.

Some poultry men who have attended the judging schools in the past have become so proficient as a result of what they learned that they have been able to obtain a certificate of proficiency.

Any person interested may obtain an illustrated circular regarding the school by writing the poultry department, college of agriculture, Ithaca, N. Y.

"Yes, once. And I hit upon a plan that I thought was sure fire. I wrote a note inclosing $10 and tied it to the cat's neck. The note read: 'Finder may keep both the cat and the money.'"

"And how did it work?"

"The cat returned the following day with another note tied to its neck. The note read: 'Don't need the cat, but can use the money. Please send $10 more.'"—Boston Transcript.

MISS HEES BRIDE OF CHARLES DURAND

PRETTY WEDDING AT HOME OF THE BRIDE'S PARENTS, TUESDAY NOON—WILL LIVE IN NEWARK

Avoca, July 3.—The marriage of Miss Castella Hees, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Hees, of Avoca, to Mr. Charles Durand, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Durand, of Leicester, N. Y., was solemnized Tuesday noon, July 1st, at the home of the bride's parents. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Albert Sterna, of Leicester. The bride wore a gown of white tulle with a tulle veil, and carried a bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. She was attended by Miss Grace Loucks, of Avoca, who wore a gown of pink tulle, and carried a bouquet of pink roses and lilies of the valley. The groom wore a tuxedo and carried a sword. The wedding party consisted of the bride, groom, best man, maid of honor, bridesmaids, flower girls, ring bearers, and ushers. The reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. The wedding party then traveled to Newark, N. J., where the honeymoon will be spent.

Graduates on Trip to Washington
Avoca, July 1.—The Misses Elizabeth, Gladys, and Gertrude Pierce, and Mr. Alton J. Wightman, four of the six graduates of the Avoca High School class of 1924, left for the latter part of the past week in company with their teacher, Miss Lillian Rosenfeld, for an educational trip of several days to Washington, D. C. The seniors have been very active during the past three years in raising money to finance this trip, which will be of great interest to all of them.

BEAN GROWERS INSURE CROPS
BRADFORD FARMERS TAKE PRECAUTIONS AGAINST HAIL DAMAGE TO THEIR BEANS

The town of Bradford is in a fair way of becoming the beanery of Steuben county. Hundreds of acres are growing in the town, and every farmer is afraid of nothing but hail, for hail does certainly make havoc in bean field. So last week Robert Leavenworth, of this village, went over there and covered the beans with hail insurance—that is, 166 acres of them. For Guy Robbins alone he covered $6 acres.

NOTICE
Pursuant to a resolution of the Trustees of the Village of Bath, adopted on the 1st day of July, 1924, for the purpose of completing the erection of the Village Hall in the Village of Bath, and the purchase of furnishings and equipment therefor, it is hereby ordered that public auction at the Office of the Trustees of said Village in the Shannon Block at 7 o'clock P. GET RID OF
THAT BACKACHE

Bath People Point the Way

The constant aching of a bad back. The weariness, the tired feeling; Headaches, dizziness, nervousness. Distressing urinary disorders—Are often signs of failing kidneys And too serious to be neglected.

Get rid of these troubles! Use Doan's Pills—a stimulant diuretic to the kidneys.

Hosts of people recommend Doan's. This is a Bath case.

You can verify it. Chas. Johnson, 21 Whiting St., Bath, says: "I was bothered with a steady ache across my kidneys and it stooped to lift anything heavy, sharp pains stabbed me in the small of my back making it hard for me to straighten. My kidneys were irregular and the secretions passed too often, bothering me at night. I used two boxes of Doan's Pills from Bryan's Pharmacy which gave me a cure that has lasted for a long time and I gladly recommend Doan's."
