MYSTERIOUS STRANGER IS REPORTED TO HAVE CHASED MISS HICKY

Assistant in Dr. McNamara's Office is Followed to Hallway But She Manages to Escape Him

Corning's mysterious "woman rabby" is a mystery still at large and according to the latest report was seen on Erie avenue Thursday night when he followed Miss Genevieve Hickey, office assistant for Dr. Thomas L. McNamara, who was in charge of the office that evening.

Later Chief Hanner who was in charge of the office that evening, stated that the report had been made about 5:30 o'clock Thursday evening but that he had failed to make a written report of it.

The man, whose followers Miss Hickey saw, was described as a young man who had assumed the appearance of a woman a short time ago. Miss Hickey said that he was about 5'6" tall, 140 pounds in height, had light hair, and wore a dark suit and tie. She also stated that his eyes were peculiar.

No information on the affair was given out by the police until questioned today. Chief Hanner stated that the man had been following her but that the report had been made about 5:30 o'clock Thursday evening but that he had failed to make a written report of it.

Motorists, Watch the White Lines When You Are Stopped by Traffic Cop at Pine St.

Much speculation has been caused among the automobile drivers by the meaning of the two new white lines painted across Market street near the intersection of Pine street and Market street. The lines are a few feet apart and extend from Market street to the intersection of Pine street and Market street. The lines are a few feet apart and extend from Market street to the intersection of Pine street and Market street.

Drifting in too close caused much confusion that the Police Traffic Department placed these lines across the street to warn drivers on Market street that they had approached close enough to the intersection to stop. The lines have their permission to go.

"Paint Headquarters"

Everywhere all over these United States, the dealer in Sherwin-Williams Paints labels his business place as "Paint Headquarters."

It is a particularly apt title to add to the Corning Building Company's long list of similar titles.

Here where one may get everything to build or repair his house—where the city may secure the materials for building a school—where the corporation may secure the materials for building a modern hotel—where the business man may secure all of the materials needed for the successful erection of any kind of store or factory—and coal to heat it.

Where else could the title "Paint Headquarters" be applied?

Do you wish to paint your house? Then Sherwin-Williams house paint will save you money by protecting the exterior of your house from all of the elements for many years.

Do you wish to make your bathroom spot and span? Sherwin Williams Old Dutch Enamel will make it as clean, pretty and sanitary as tile.

Do you wish to apply a coat of paint to the roof to protect the interior of your home against the ravages of winter and the spring thaws? Then Sherwin Williams paints should be applied this month. It may be too late in November. The Sherwin-Williams household guide tells you what to use for any and every purpose.

We have already contracted to furnish the materials or to build complete storm vestibules and storm windows for several houses in the city. Before really cold weather arrives we can well take care of many more similar orders. We suggest that you talk over with us the storm vestibule proposition. It won't cost you anything to get suggestions. It won't cost you much to carry them out. And now is a good time to get ready for winter.

Storm houses and storm windows just naturally suggest Coal, too. Tell us you ordered yours? Elsewhere in this newspaper is our Coal advertisement, with prices, etc.

PAID $2 TOLL ON BATH ROAD

Corning Materials Allowed to Pass After Contributing to Barrier Guard

Evidence that some one maintained a toll gate last night on the recently constructed Saratoga highway, was brought to light today, when complaint was made to the Corning police by a prominent resident of this city that he paid a fee of $2 to pass two cars over the road. It is believed that the stunt was the work of some resident along the new route, but an investigation of the matter is now under way.

V. L. Collins of Horridell, head of the construction company which has been building the new road, was called on the telephone by The Evening Leader this morning and, when informed of the circumstances expressed much surprise over the affair and stated that he did not have a night watchman on the road.

According to the complaint made to officials of the city club, a party of Corning Masons, in two automobiles were returning to this city from Amana where they had been to attend a meeting. Driving on the new road leading west out of Bath the driver said he did not pass the toll gate until about half way to Saratoga, where they were stopped by a man, who appeared to be a night watchman. The driver was informed that the fee was $2 and the party could go no further and that they would have to go back and take the detour.

Sup't. W. H. Green, of the construction company, who has supervision of this new construction, stated this morning that no traffic was being allowed along the new road and that signs had been placed at each end of the construction. There are no signs on the road now, but it is believed that the man who collected the toll was a Corning man being charged $2. The local motorists, however, declared they passed several cars going in both directions as they were on their way to Bath.

Dag. Green, stated most emphatically that the road would not be open until November 15, and that the work was being rushed so that it could be opened on that date. The fact that it was blocked in several places with a steam shovel, concrete mixer and pile of stones, he stated, and would be dangerous for night travel at this time.

10 QUESTIONS WILL BE SUBMITTED THIS YEAR TO ELECTORATE

Eight Pertain to City Paving Projects,
One to Election of Alderman and the Other to Park Bond Issue

Corning voters and taxpayers will have 10 questions upon which to make a decision at the general election of November 3, 1925. The first question will be a state issue and nine being local questions, eight of which concern the raising of money for pavement construction.

The state question is known as the State Park Bond Issue and if passed would provide a bond issue of $10,000,000, and would support the policy of increasing and improving state forests and parks. Funds under the issue, it is said, will carry on to vastly improve the state parks and forests. The issue is a question of giving the people greater opportunities for wholesome outdoor recreation. They will also permit consistent progress in addition to state forests, in line with the policy of conservation of natural resources.

For co-ordinating the acquisition and development of state parks in a unified plan are now provided in the State Constitution, created by the 1924 legislature. The legislature also created a provision for the election of commissioners in the Finger Lakes area and on Long Island.

Elmira Man Admits He Drove Car While Intoxicated;
Then Changed Mind

After entering a plea of guilty to the charge of driving a car while intoxicated, Clarence J. Lane, of Elmira, who was arrested on November 8, a jury drawn, and bail was fixed at $100.

Lane was arrested about 10:30 o'clock last evening by Officer Collins at the corner of Chestnut and Judge Wheeler announced that the man's license was automatically revoked, and that he should pay a fine of $100. Attorney Sebring who appeared for the defendant then entered a plea of insanity on the part of the defendant, claiming that the fine be reduced.

STUDENTS IN AUTO CRASH

Miss Nina Gordon of Syracuse
Has Fractured Skull; Three Others Escaped

Miss Nina Gordon, a student at Syracuse University, suffered a possible fracture of the skull and three other occupants of an automobile en route from Syracuse to State College, Pa., were injured in an accident at Lawrenceville, Pa., about 5 o'clock this morning.

The injured were brought to Corning Hospital, but three of the injured were discharged after their injuries were attended to.

The three being serious, the others in the car were Valance Nye, driver, L. Newell and J. L. Howard, all of Syracuse.

The party passed through Corning shortly after 4 o'clock this morning and were en route to the Syracuse-Penn State football game at State College, Pa. The exact cause of the accident is not known, but as the car was going down the hill leading onto the Lawrenceville bridge the driver evidently lost control and the machine plunged into the cut of the road.

Dr. H. E. Battin, of this city, was summoned to attend to the injured and after giving attention to their injuries, had the party removed to the Corning Hospital.

Miss Gordon, the most seriously injured, has a fractured skull and a fractured leg. She is being treated by Dr. H. E. Battin.

Miss Howard, the second most seriously injured, has a fractured leg and a fractured arm. She is being treated by Dr. H. E. Battin.

Miss Nye, the driver, has a fractured leg and a fractured arm. She is being treated by Dr. H. E. Battin.
