LEADERS MUST HEED DEMANDS

Colonel Theodore Roosevelt Says Younger Generation Must be Remembered

BINGHAMTON, Feb. 21.—"The voice of the younger men and women of this generation must be heard in the councils of the Republican party if that party is to remain a moving force in the nation," Colonel Theodore Roosevelt said at a meeting of the Republican League in the Elks Club house here last night.

"There are two reasons for the active participation of the younger men in the Republican organization," he said. "One, to strengthen and develop the Republican party organization which already has been built up, and to so arrange that when the younger men express themselves they may command sufficient respect from the older leaders that their opinions may be recognized."

Colonel Roosevelt emphasized the need for a wider participation of young men and women than could be provided by existing service men. The younger generation includes many who were too young for service in the World War, but their abilities and activity are none the less needed in the Republican party if it is to remain an active force in the community, the state and the nation, he said.

UNUSUAL MEETING IN PULTENEY

J. J. Denniston One of Best Watchmakers in Country; Never Used Sign

HAMMONDSVILLE, Feb. 21.—One of the most unusual men to be found anywhere is J. J. Denniston of Pultey. That is a most modest man, he has never used the fact that he has never used a sign over his place of business. He is an expert watchmaker. He is now 56 years of age and he started learning his trade at the age of 14 years. He was born in Pultey and except for a few years when working in cities, has spent his entire life in Pultey. It is seldom that expert watchmakers are to be found in any small town, and there are few men of Mr. Denniston's ability located in the city.

However, he is perfectly contented with his present business and has no desire to leave his fields, where he has had many opportunities for employment. Mr. Denniston has a watch which he made himself some 20 odd years ago. The watch does not vary more than 20 seconds per month. He spent over six months in making this watch, which by his special adjustments keeps time so accurately. Orders come to him from nearly every state in the Union. Most of these are for making special parts, frequently for very delicate and there are watch manufacturers hesitate to fill the order.

Mr. Denniston has a pair of scales which he made that are exceptionally sensitive. He says that to have a good watch one must have scales which will register the smallest portion of a grain. As an idea of the sensitivity of his scales he states that he can place a paper on these scales, then remove it and mark the paper with a lead pencil and the scales it will register the weight of this pencil mark. He found a gold hair spring in his scales as well as an aluminum weight.

NAGARA FALLS MAN SHOT BY POLICE AFTER HE HAD FIRED ON SEVERAL PEOPLE

NAGARA FALLS, Feb. 21.—Smith, 26 years old, is in a hospital today with wounds from a bullet wound in his head. His condition is serious but surgeons say he probably will recover.

Smith was shot by police early today after he had run and shot several hours with two automatic pistols and shot up two homes.

He barricaded himself in his home and held a police squad until his ammunition ran out, when he made a dash for liberty and was shot down by bullets from the officers' guns.

About 9 o'clock last night police were called to the home of Rudolph Maday. Smith's brother-in-law who said Smith had entered the house and fired eleven shots into a sitting room where the members of the Maday family were gathered. The bullet went wild.

Smith ran out of the house but returned while Police Benja-min Blay was investigating the shooting. He lay on his stomach on a stairway leading from a grand entrance and pumped five bullets at Blay. One of the bullets split the officer's night shirt. Blay chased Smith from the house and fired two shots.

Soon after Smith fired two shots through a kitchen window into the room of Stanley Zerkow. One of the bullets broke a mirror on the wall.

Smith returned to his home and soon residents of the neighborhood called police headquarters and said that one was shooting from the windows of the Smith house. From a vantage point in the cellar from where he could see the officers but where he was hidden from their sight, Smith continued firing.

The public has been quick to realize this fact and, as a result, the Chevrolet Motor company has broken all previous January records for retail sales.

ROADS TO BE MERGED REPORT ON EARNINGS

NEW YORK, Feb. 21.—Preliminary earnings statements of the five railroads which will make up the Van Sweringen new "Nickel Plate" system indicate that it will rank favorably in earning power with existing trunk lines. The combined income of the present "Nickel Plate," Erie, Pere Marquette, Chesapeake and would have been equivalent to a return of $16.75 a share on the common stock. Indicated gross revenue of the combined roads last year was approximately $340,363,954 which exceeded that of the Baltimore and Ohio, but failed to equal the receipts of the New York Central or Pennsylvania.

Ohio and Hocking Valley railroads in 1924, applied to the capitalization of the new system.

COCHOCTON FARM PROPERTY

COCHOCTON, Feb. 21.—Very few changes are being made in farm property in or near Cochocton this season, though an unusually large number of farmers

An illustration of the depressed conditions which exist in farm property, is shown by the sale of the farm owned for several years by Charles Haight, who moved from it to this village recently. This farm contains 113 acres of mostly level land, is ideally located barely two miles north of this village, on the improved highway passing through the Cochocton valley, soil not exhausted, buildings in good condition and under normal conditions the property would be quickly picked up at ten thousand dollars. After trying for several months Mr. Haight finally succeeded in selling it at $5,000, the purchase

NEW LICENSE BILL PASSES

Permits Use of New Plates for Five Days Prior to New Year

Use of automobile license plates for the coming year may be permitted five days before the expiration of the present year, by a bill recently passed the Legislature. It is signed by the governor.

The first automobile bill to pass both houses of the Legislature is that of Assemblyman Goodrich of Westchester county, providing that new automobile registrations be used five days before the first of each year. The bill was recommended by the New York State Automobile Association for the purpose of doing away with the rush for new plates by motorists just before the first of the year. This condition caused a jam in the office of the Department of Motor Vehicles at the turn of the year, because of the inability of the office force to handle the large number of owners who waited until the last minute to get their plates. Mayor Schwab of Buffalo was forced to call on the police to keep order among the automobile owners, waiting for their new plates. They formed lines that extended more than a block away from the Buffalo branch office, and near riots were frequent. The same condition prevailed in Syracuse, Albany and other cities, where hundreds of motorists, who were unable to get their new plates were crowded after the first of the year for driving with 1924 plates. It is believed that if motorists could use their new plates five days before the first of the year, they would make an effort to obtain them earlier. It is now just before the first of the year as it is to use the previous year's plates afterwards.

ARREST ONE DURING RAID

Sheriff Page Visits Emerson M'Allister Place Near Ekliland, Pa.

Sheriff W. E. Page, accompanied by Undersecretary Ray Stables and two deputies raided the road house conducted by Emerson M'Allister, near Ekliland, about 10:30 o'clock last night and secured six bottles of "evidence" alleged to be gin and liquor. M'Allister was brought to Corning today and arraigned before U. S. Commissioner Claude V. Stowell. The sheriff has made similar visits to various sections of the county but last night was his first trip to the town of Tuscarora. The Emerson place is located in the town of Tuscarora about a mile from Ekliland, Pa., and is situated just north of the state line. According to Sheriff Page many complaints had been lodged against the place and last night accompanied by his aides he went there. The officers called for whiskey and were and were served with three drinks. The sheriff stated: After the drinks had been served, the proprietor was placed under arrest and a search of the place disclosed the six bottles. On the return trip to Bath, Sheriff Page and his officers were stopped at South Addison, where they had several hours searching for

CLONIAN TO MEET

The meeting of the Clonians Circle will be held on Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. George Cary of Hamlet, N. Y., instead of at the home of Miss Charlotte Morgan as was formerly scheduled.

NAME STOWELL COMMISSIONER

Former District Attorney is Successor to Robert H. Tew

Attorney Claude V. Stowell, of 12 East First street, of Corning's prominent lawyers, today assumed the duties of failed State Commissioner to succeed Robert H. Tew, whose resignation from the office was announced yesterday. Mr. Stowell will maintain his office in the First National Bank Building where his law offices are located. Mr. Tew, however, will assist Commissioner Stowell until the cases which have come before him have been cleared up. It is estimated that he will be no misunderstanding in the disposition. Mr. Stowell's appointment was made yesterday by Federal Judge John H. Russell. Attorney Tew tendered his resignation to Judge Russell several days ago and following its acceptance he has continued his law practice at his office on Bridge street.

Commissioner Stowell, an avowed Republican, is one of the best known attorneys in Steuben county. In 1912 he was elected to the office of district attorney on the Democratic ticket and served the county most efficiently and faithfully for three years. Following the expiration of his term of office in January 1916, he formed a partnership with Vern Ryan, organist of the law firm of Stowell & Ryan. Since that time the firm has been successful in various growing business. Mr. Stowell was also instrumental in the organization of the Steuben Theatre Company which built the Liberty Theatre here several years ago, being secretary and treasurer of the organization.

CONFERENCE AT ALBANY FEB. 26

Expect Mayor or Some Representative Will Attend for the City

The annual mid-winter conference of city and village officials will be held at the Albany City Hall Thursday, February 26, and it is probable that Mayor Hallahan and City Attorney Frank H. Perry will attend. The advisory committee of the Conference of Mayors is now arranging the program which is said to provide a profitable conference for the officials of every city and first class village in the state.

The state legislature has under consideration several important matters which vitally affect the interests of many municipalities. There are still others to be presented and the officers of the Mayor's Conference are urging all city officials to be present if possible or to send a representative from the administration. The committee in charge of the conference is planning a thorough discussion of the important legislative matters, including utility legislation, home rule legislation, education legislation, new and increased sources of municipal revenue, uniform accounting and budget systems and municipal and regional planning.

No bills are prepared or introduced into the Legislature by or in behalf of the Conference of Mayors according to a statement made by the president, William H. Hackett. The policy is to present each year to the Governor and State Legislature, a legislative program setting forth needed municipal legislation and to advise of its committee and supporting needed data by its state bureau of information, to assist the legislature in drafting and enacting proper municipal legislation.

The fire started in the basement under the west wing of the building in a pile of papers which had been taken from a paper press. The cause is not known but when discovered the fire had worked its way to the ceiling and was burning briskly. Two streams were used before the flames were extinguished and for a time it appeared as if the building was doomed.

The fire truck from station No. 2, had a slight accident while en route to the fire as the motor, which was climbing Walnut street, for some reason or other the brakes refused to hold as the machine stopped and started to back. The rear of the truck struck against a telephone pole and the rear step was broken. Nelson Walcott, substitute fireman, was the driver.

Chief McCarthy in commenting on the difficulty experienced in pulling the fire alarm box, stated that there are many in the city who do not understand the operation of these alarms. The correct way of sending a fire alarm through these boxes is very simple and the chief gives the following directions: "Break the glass in the box; turn the key in the small door, open this door, pull the hook down once."
