$120,000 in Ten Dollar Bills Stolen in Pouch From Buffalo Transfer Station or Office

BUFFALO, Mar. 28.—Postoffice inspectors said this afternoon that arrests are expected, possibly within a few hours, in connection with the theft of a pouch containing $120,000 in currency from the made while en route through Buffalo. The theft, they said, took place on February 27. They had attempted to keep both the theft and the resulting investigation secret, postal authorities said, pending the expected arrests. They offered copies of the theft, however, after they had been obtained and published by a local newspaper.

The missing pouch contained 12,000 bills of $10 denomination, and was one of three consigned to the Federal Reserve Bank of Detroit from Washington. It was first missed after the mail commission had been transferred from the Pennsylvania to the Michigan Central. The discovery that only two of the original three Detroit pouches remained in the shipment was made soon after the Michigan Central train bearing the consignment had left Buffalo. Word was wired back to Buffalo and postoffice inspectors have started an investigation the same day.

The authorities declared they definitely whether the pouch was believed to have been taken during the "Buffalo" transfer station. They said they had no definite trace of the pouch after it left Washington. Investigation, however, was understood to have centered in Buffalo.

Serial numbers of the stolen bills are known, the authorities said, and they were reported to the Buffalo banks within the past few days.

A declaration that Palman never had any germ cultures in his school was made by Mrs. Elia H. Huelby, who said she was secretary of the school, and who said she had a writ of replevin for the recovery from her husband, Dr. Huelby, of the germ cultures.

CHAPMAN AND LAWYERS GET TIME TO PLAN
HARTFORD, Conn., Mar. 28.—By A. P. There was no session today in the trial of Gerald Chapman, mail looter and jail breaker who is charged with the murder of a new Britain police officer last October 12.

Superior Court Judge Newell Jennings yesterday adjourned court until Monday morning, after the trial of Chapman, who is charged with the murder of a new Britain police officer last October 12.

An entire floor of a local hotel was reserved for the trial of Chapman, who is charged with the murder of a new Britain police officer last October 12.

The jury, which was selected from the jury pool, was sworn in by Judge Jennings.

Chapman was in consultation with his attorneys a large part of the day in his cell in the state prison, where he is being held.

Twenty-four witnesses were put on the stand by the state prosecutor, Hugh M. Allen, during the trial of Chapman, who is charged with the murder of a new Britain police officer last October 12.

WESS SAYS SHEPHERD NOT GERM EXPERT

Former Secretary of Palman's School Says Typhoid Cultures were Not Given
CHICAGO, Mar. 28.—Edward P. Clark, one of the first witnesses in the inquiry that led to the indictment of William D. Shepherd as the slayer of his foster son, William McClintock, orphan at Williams, was questioned by state's attorneys today on information that he had been offered $10,000 to leave the city.

Detectives were sent out to bring in also for questioning the owner of a small house in Chicago, who was said to have made the offer.

Clark formerly was a salesman of the National University of Science, whose head, Charles C. Palman, was jointly indicted with Shepherd after he said he had given typhoid germs and instructions on administering them to McClintock.

A declaration that Palman never had any germ cultures in his school was made by Mrs. Elia H. Huelby, who said she was secretary of the school, and who said she had a writ of replevin for the recovery from her husband, Dr. Huelby, of the germ cultures.

ERIE WRECK
AT WAVERLY

East Bound Freight Buckles
Center Throwing Car Off Track

WAVERLY, Mar. 28.—An east-bound Erie freight train, in charge of Conductor Magee of Hornell, buckled in the center 209 yards east of the Elmira street bridge here yesterday afternoon, crushing and throwing one car off the track so that for a short time both the east- and westbound tracks were blocked.

Two or three other drawings were pulled out in the long train which was drawn by two engines. A wrecking crew was put to work and shortly after 7 o'clock the night had the westbound train cleared, with no delay to passenger traffic, at least on that line.

Train, No. 26 due here at 8:30 o'clock, was about an hour late in passing Waverly, because the wreck blocked the main line track until about 7:50 o'clock.

It is thought the train was heavy, even for two engines to pull and this is thought to be the reason for the car buckling. The door was ripped off and a few of the contents thrown out, but there was little damage to any of the freight.

Alaska's first air mail route from Fairbanks to McGrath covers the 300 miles in four hours compared to 15 days by dog teams.

Concerning The Action and Characters
EDWARD WESTON, leader in conducting The Western Motor Co. and his partner,
JONAS MARLOWE, HIMSELF MARLOWE, and their witnesses, the Marlowes, spring and sacrifice to make the project a success.

YOUNG MAJ. MARLOWE gives up the thought of college. LITTLE HELEN WESTON wants an automobile. JANE MARLOWE, who is a widow, is almost in poverty. Weston tells Mrs. Marlowe that her husband's interest in the company was small and offers to take her into his office. Mrs. Marlowe, who is a widow, is almost in poverty. Weston tells Mrs. Marlowe that her husband's interest in the company was small and offers to take her into his office.

When Mrs. Marlowe learned that her husband had left no fortune—in fact, that she and Jane had no money at all—she was shocked. She had been so sure that her husband was a millionaire. She had been so sure that her husband was a millionaire. She had been so sure that her husband was a millionaire. She had been so sure that her husband was a millionaire. She had been so sure that her husband was a millionaire.

For Jane knew what every one suspected, that Weston had cleverly robbed her father. Time after time, he had urged Marlowe to sell his surplus capital into the stock market. He had urged Marlowe to sell his surplus capital into the stock market. He had urged Marlowe to sell his surplus capital into the stock market. He had urged Marlowe to sell his surplus capital into the stock market.

There was the affair with Mrs. Sabin. To a great deal had been lavished upon her, of which Weston was fully cognizant. At various times Marlowe had made business trips to Europe and the Orient to represent the Western Motor. During his absence, Weston had been entrusted with the affairs of the company. THE WINDS OF MARCH I don't know whether other women have the same feeling that I have had about a cold, wet windy day, but from the general unpopularity of March weather, I rather think the prejudice is more or less familiar. One often hears the phrase:

"I can stand any amount of biting cold weather, if it is dry and clear. It is these damp, chill, penetrating winds that I rebel against."

Well, I have had to work out my acid distillate of March winds—that is, work out of it! I decided that I was going to have to live through one March a year for the rest of my life, and I might as well plan to enjoy it instead of hate it. After all, the mental attitude toward any condition is the most important thing, and March has its good points—if only that it has April tied to its apron!

And then one day I read a splendid line in one of Kenneth Graham's books:

"The masterful wind was up and about—laughing and shouting, the lord of the morning." I have really never disliked a high wind since then.

But just to try to live like March weather is the proper preparation to meet it. To begin with, I think we should dress rather more warmly in chilly, windy weather, even if the thermometer is not very low. I always like to put on a little extra clothing to keep out the wind. The house, too, can stand a little extra warmth, and dryness, to offset the dampness of the outer air that drives in with every gust of wind.

The skin is more apt to chafe in wet, windy weather than in the freezing weather of midwinter, and the best protection against this is complete dryness of the face and hands, especially the latter.

ter. By drying the hands perfectly after washing them (or the dishes) and perhaps rubbing a little softening cream into them, before and after going outdoors, much of the wind's mischief may be avoided.

Best of all, try wrapping up snugly in coat, high gaiters, scarf, gloves, and oil-skin raincoat, and an out and revel in it. Face it, boldly, snuff it in, let it buffet you and race with you. You will lose your annoyance at it, and find that it is a rolicking playmate.

SICK 3 YEARS
WITHOUT RELIEF

Finally Found Health by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Columbia, R. C.—"Your medicine has done me so much good that I feel like I owe my life to it. For three years I was sick and was treated by physicians, but they didn't seem to help me any. Then I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and got strong enough to do my housework, where before I was hardly able to get up. I have also taken your Vegetable Compound during the Change of Life and it has left me in good health. I recommend it as the best medicine for women in the Change of Life and you can use these facts as a testimonial."—Mrs. S. A. HOLLEY, R. F. D. No. 4, Columbia, South Carolina.

Who suffer for years with backache, nervousness, painful times and other ailments common to women from early life to middle age when Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will bring relief!

In a recent country-wide canvass of purchasers of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound over 200,000 replies were received, and 38 out of every 100 reported they were benefited by its use.

Former Corning Man Speaks at Meeting of Rotary Club Friday

Harry H. Pratt, of Brooklyn, formerly of Corning, was the speaker yesterday at a meeting of the Albany Rotary Club, appearing there as a special representative of the Erie Railroad. Mr. Pratt has spoken to various clubs and organizations throughout the county and only recently gave the talk on "Railroads and Transportation" to Corning Rotarians. "Capitalism," the official publication of Albany Rotary introduced Mr. Pratt in a recent issue in the following unique manner: Dear Shipper: "Years ago—I'll not tell you how many—Harry H. Pratt was a newspaper editor over in Corning. I knew Harry for I used to swipe some of his stuff out of the Corning Journal and print it in the Elmira Gazette. Harry long ago ceased to be an editor. He went to Congress—and that's more than some of our members have done. —Rollin Sanford proving the exception to the rule. I lost track of Harry after he ceased to function at Washington.

"A few weeks ago I went over to Schenectady with Mark Graves to boost Albany's attendance record. ter of Coopers were visitors here. Wanted to 'renew' my acquaintance Thursday.

tance with Harry, too, and hear him talk about "Railroad Problems." It seems that Harry is now special representative of the Erie Railroad and was to be the speaker, Corning is on the Erie. Found Charley Holtsman all in a stew. The speaker had missed his train—all of us have our railroad problems at times—and there was no one to meet him, when he was scheduled to arrive, who knew him. So I volunteered. Found Harry at the station trying to check his bag at the wrong place—another railroad problem. He didn't know me, but I knew him. Meanwhile the club was marking time waiting for Harry, and Monsignor Reilly, Schenectady's president, was looking at President Syd (he was there, too,) in an "I'm-going-to-call-on-you-to-fill-in" sort of way, and Syd was getting nervous all the time. Then in walked Harry.

"Michael, Syd, Mark, John, (also there,) and I, liked Harry's talk so well that he was immediately booked to tell his story to Albany Rotary. He will be with us Friday if he doesn't miss his train, and Dave Fleming has promised to furnish a guide to the parcel room so as not to embarrass Harry any more so far as checking his bag is concerned. He is going to talk to us on railroad problems and if you don't believe it will be interesting ask Syd, or Mark or John—or take my word for it."

"Corning papers, please copy."

Jack, Secretary.

Mrs. Fred Louy and daughter of Coopers were visitors here. Wanted to 'renew' my acquaintance Thursday.

BLU-GREEN Boyce-ite GASOLINE

Your motor deserves this superfuel

I believe you will notice an improvement in your motor shortly after you start using Boyce-ite, but remember Boyce-ite Blu-Green Gasoline is not a miracle worker nor does it cure mechanical troubles. For example, should your motor become carbonized through undue leakage by the piston ring, it is necessary to have the carbon removed as soon as the knock becomes serious.

Boyce-ite Blu-Green Gasoline will not clog your carburetor, increase the temperature of your motor or "burn up valves."

Boyce-ite Blu-Green Gasoline is unquestionably the superfuel and I have never known a motorist who has driven one thousand miles or more with it who has ever gone back to plain gasoline no matter what the brand.

BOYCE-ITE BLU-GREEN GASOLINE CAN BE SECURED AT THE FOLLOWING STATIONS:

MRS. ORR IS SOCIETY HEAD

Elected President of Ladies' Aid of Dundee Presbyterian Church

DUNDÉE, Mar. 28.—The Ladies' Aid Society of the Presbyterian Church, have elected the following officers for the coming year: President, Mrs. Walter Orr; first vice-president, Mrs. John Orr; second vice-president, Mrs. C. J. Watson; secretary, Mrs. Emma Northrup; treasurer, Mrs. Mildred Carpenter. The reports of the treasury show that the society earned during the past year by support, first of the sum of $100 all of which was spent for repairs and upkeep of church. The ladies of this coming year have a full program of work ahead of them as extensive repair work is to be done on the church.

Work started Work has started on the vacant lot on the four corners in this village. A representative from the Standard Oil Company, who purchased the property last winter from C. J. Watson has been here to complete the arrangements. The filling in of the basement has already started, through the cooperation of the Chamber of Commerce local labor will be employed and material will be purchased of local houses. The filling in of the basement will be hired for the work of filling in. The work of tearing up the street will be to be lowered to the level of the road, so that there will be no approach by automobiles from the street. The station will be erected from the street near the corner of the lot. This will be a drive in and out gas and oil station to be conducted by the Standard Oil Company. When this is completed it is expected to improve the appearance of the main street.

Women's Study Club Meeting The next meeting of the Women's Study Club will be held on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Carl Miles on Hollister street. The roll call will be answered by the telling of ghost stories. Mrs. Cecil Sargent will give an article on Shalimar and Orkney Islands; Mrs. L. E. Wright will give a reading "Puffins from the Orkneys"; this will be followed by current events and criticisms.

Leader Bedtime Story

UNCLE WIGGILY By HOWARD R. GARIS Copyright 1925 by The Leader by Merton H. Smith

UNCLE WIGGILY'S UP AND DOWN

The March wind was blowing about the last of its doing about. Puffing out its cheeks and making long, low, wailing sounds, the March wind whistled around corners, down chimneys and blew along the paths at Woodland where Uncle Wiggily lived in his hollow stump bungalow.

"It is not very careful, if it goes out today, that my pink nose doesn't get its twinkle blown off," thought the rabbit gentleman to himself. Then, as he never could stay in the house, where there was no chance of finding an adventure, Uncle Wiggily hopped forth to see what would happen.

"Where—?" howled the March wind when it saw the bunny hopping through the forest. "I'll blow his nose off."

"Where—?" howled the March wind. "I'll blow his ears off."

"Where—?" howled the March wind. "I'll blow his hat off."

CHAS. RUSSELL GETS FREEDOM

Painted Post Man Not Held in Dry Case; Ross is Sent to Jail

The Baltimore, Md., dispatch yesterday concerning the disposition of the cases of Luther B. Ross of Corning and Charles D. Russell of Corning, arrested in connection with a dry crusade near Washington, was in error in that the names of the young men were reversed.

Mr. Russell, who was reported to have been fined $100 and then sent to jail for 30 days because he could not pay the fine, was released from custody, no charge being placed against him. It was learned from the evidence that Russell knew nothing of the alleged cargo of liquor found in the automobile in which he and Ross were riding. Ross, alleged owner of the car, was fined $100 and when he was unable to pay was sentenced to 30 days in jail.

HEWITT HIGHWAY BILL PASSED BY ASSEMBLY; GOVERNOR WILL SIGN

Provides 65 Miles of New Construction in Steuben; License Bill is Also Given Approval

The New York State Assembly adjourned at 5:20 o'clock Friday afternoon for completion of the year's session and Assembly William Messer returned to his home in Corning today. The Hewitt road map bill, which provides approximately 65 miles of new construction in Steuben county, was one of the final acts passed by the assembly. Mr. Messer states, and will without question be signed by Governor Smith.

The bill provides for all new construction and although the entire 65 miles for Steuben county will probably not be completed this year, it is expected that the preliminary work will be started this spring.

The Steuben roads included on the road bill are: Steuben to Corning, 15 miles; Corning to Hammondsport, 15 miles; Hammondsport to Penn Yan, on the east side of Lake Seneca, a distance of 30 miles.

District Headquarters at Rochester Issues Orders to Check Up

Inspector Frank Anderson, of the Motor Vehicle Bureau, who is stationed in Steuben County, has received notice from the district headquarters at Rochester that the motor vehicle law must be strictly enforced. The announcement states that the day of warning has passed and that hereafter the persistent violator of the law will bear the brunt of the strict enforcement. Every inspector has been instructed to exercise the power conferred upon him by law.

Commissioner Charles A. Harrett states that the only exception to be made will be the enforcement of headlight regulations which will be handled by special drives at intervals throughout the state.

"Until now," said Commissioner Harrett, "we have been warning the motorist of his transgressions and trying to correct them by the least possible court action of the state. In numerous instances we have had immediate and pleasing response to these warnings, while in others, where there has been indifference mixed with absolute defiance. Prominent among the violations are those of cases of overdue registration plates, reckless driving due to excessive speed, etc."

"Courtney will always be the watchword of the Bureau of Motor Vehicles while I am charged with the administration of its functions, but in cases where the motorist denies us his co-operation we can only resort to a strict enforcement of the law in order to protect the life and limb of the public."

Cooperation on Part of All Citizens Needed to Enforce Dry Laws Says Commissioner

"The Federal prohibition act can be enforced only through the co-operation of all the citizens," asserted U. S. Commissioner Claude H. Stowell, in commenting on his first experience as a Federal officer for the Corning district. "The public has got to get back of the Federal officials if they want the law enforced and the prohibition should be enforced the same as any law."

When asked as to how the public could assist in this enforcement work, Commissioner Stowell pointed out that private industry and business should be vigilant that the prohibition law is being violated and can swear out warrants for a search and seizure. "The evidence has got to be such, however," he stated, "that the commissioner on his own is not reasonably convinced that the law is being violated. The enforcement forces are rather limited and better results could be obtained by co-operation on the part of all."

Attorney Stowell was appointed as United States Commissioner for the 25th judicial district, H. Tew who resigned. Since taking the duties of the office Mr. Stowell has had four cases in which all of the defendants were held to await the action of the federal grand jury.

Mr. Stowell was born in the town of Lindley and as a boy he attended the public schools of

2 MORE RAIDS MADE IN CITY

Sheriff Page and Federal Men Fail to Find Any Evidence

Continuing the clean-up campaign in Corning, Sheriff Page aided by Federal agents visited two Market street places late yesterday afternoon but without results. The first place visited was that conducted by Joe Sumner and the next stop was at the Corning Market street, conducted by Floyd Fennick, formerly conducted by Leo Kohn.

At the latter place the officers state they found a closet containing a large quantity of evidence, whereby a trap door could be removed and the evidence in the hand could be precipitated into the cellar.

Investigations are still under way by District Attorney Chappin regarding the raid made at Riverside last but no immediate developments are anticipated.

FIRE AT FACTORY

An overheated gas producer in the C factory at Corning Glass Works started a fire in a hallway about 1:30 o'clock this morning and necessitated a call for Corning Fire Department. The wooden stairway and a cupboard were burning briskly when the firemen arrived, but was quickly extinguished with but small damage. The factory with a bang, was also on hand and had a stream on the fire.

—R. A. Cooley and daughter, Verma of Wellsboro, Pa., were visitors here Wednesday while enroute home after visiting relatives in Elmira Heights.

State Theatre NEWS AND NOTES

Furnished by the Management

Trio Scores Again. Star director and producer are once again combined in one big show. Colleen Moore, the actress, Francis Dillon, the director and First National, the producer, have gone back to it again.

Last season they made the big hit, "Flaming South" and now they are back with this season's story of youth and its ring, "The Perfect Flapper" which is a feature attraction at the State Theatre Sunday and Monday.

Playing a role that has been a popular one, Colleen Moore romps through the most wholesome and cleanest of pictures. The love screen has been mirrored in her support are Sydney Chaplin, Frank Mayo and Phyllis Haver.

The comedy number for Sunday and Monday is another of the laughable "Buck" series called "The Fox Hunt" and the always enjoyable News weekly and Joe Walters' state orchestra all combine for a splendid evening's entertainment.

Nashvina in New Picture. Supported by Lou Tellegen, the phenomenal star of "The Girl in the Red Velvet Shoes" will be seen Tuesday and Wednesday in her newest production, "The Reckoning."

Buster Keaton's "Seven Chances" Taken from the farce comedy of the same name, "Seven Chances" with the superb-faced Buster Keaton as the star will be the attraction with vaudeville next week Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

For the entire Easter week Douglas Fairbanks will be seen in his latest success, "The Thief of Bagdad."

ROCHESTER MAN HELD. Frederick Hager, 27, of Rochester, was arrested in City Court this morning charged with abandoning his family in this city. The defendant pleaded not guilty and the case was transferred to Roro, Pa., spent Thursday shop.

Children's Court, bail being fixed at $100. The complaint in the case was made by the wife, Mrs. Treasa Hager.

—Mrs. W. S. Dunick of Wellsboro, Pa., spent Thursday shop.

POWER

is What You Get!

When you sound your horn in front of a Texaco pump and the attendant runs 5, 10 or 15 accurately measured gallons into your tank, you have bought something more than what the pump indicator shows.

You have by this filling of Texaco, the volatile gas, given your engine the opportunity of turning over at its full rated power. You have treated yourself to the pleasure and profit of a snappier engine, greater mileage, and a power reserve to meet every road or traffic condition.

25 Miles to the Gallon

58 Miles per Hour

5 to 25 Miles in 8 Seconds

Never before has there been an organization capable of producing at anywhere near the low Maxwell price such speed and power, economy and absence of vibration in a 4-cylinder car.

Chrysler engineers have combined with unprecedented smoothness a speed of 58 miles per hour and a flashing acceleration of 5 to 25 miles in 8 seconds.

They have engineered into this motor a gasoline economy of 25 miles to the gallon, and an upkeep economy which brings replacement and repair costs close to the zero mark.

We are eager to prove these Maxwell facts in a demonstration drive.
