DEBT TERMS TO BE ARRANGED BY COOLIDGE

President to Assume Responsibility Says Observer of Negotiations Now on

BY DAVID LAWRENCE

(Copyright, 1925, by The Evening Leader)

SWAMPSCOTT, Mass., Aug. 15.—

President Coolidge will assume personal responsibility for the settlement of the outstanding war debt of Belgium, Mr.

alone can say.

Mr. Coolidge said that the most important thing that can be made and done is to get the agreement of the Belgian government. "If the Belgian government is not ready to accept the terms of the agreement, then the agreement will be made by the American government. The agreement will be made by the American government. The approval in December. Similarly, the American commission is urging Italy to come to an agreement with Belgium. In this case, if Italy is to be granted to one it will have to be extended to Belgium. Belgium's plight is one that has always drawn the sympathy of the United States and her remarkable spirit in reconstruction has elicited the admiration of the American people. Much has been said constantly in the informal conversation of the American people in Belgium as to the reason why nothing that favors of Belgium should be allowed to pass. Belgium's financial records.

This much is certain. Belgium will be given a lower rate of interest than was Great Britain and there will be a suspension of interest charges for a period not yet determined. That the principal will have to be paid in full. When this is accepted by Belgium, the American government can approach the other debtors for a settlement along the same lines.

President Coolidge has been convinced that the attitude adopted by Secretary Mellon and the American government is one that may not at the present moment bring large payments but will be the best for the long run. The important principle to be born in mind is that the United States government thinks it vital that recognition of sacred obligations be made by all debtors. The means after all the debtors have pledged themselves to pay, the time of payment will be fixed to conform to the probable capacity of each country to pay. Mr. Coolidge has played a controlling part in the negotiations with the other debtors. He has owned America much larger sums in debt to be vital. Belgium cannot get further credits in the United States unless she settles her debt. She is disposed to make a settlement and is asking for leniency in terms. The World War funding commission is dependent on the Congress for ratification of any plan proposed. Negotiations will not be delayed. Some kind of a settlement is in prospect so that Belgium's debt of $450,000,000 is relatively small, but the effort upon the other debtors will be a minimum in terms. The principal points have been transmitted to the Belgian commission in Washington and are under consideration at Brussels by the cabinet there.

CASE OF PAINTED POST
LAD IS NOT DIAGNOSED

The physician's report in the case of John Ryan, eight year old son of Thomas Ryan of 433 1/2 High street who has been seriously ill at his home, suffering from what is feared to be infantile paralysis, indicates that there is little change in the lad's condition.

Dr. R. B. Wakeman of the St. Vincent's Hospital called for him for consultation with Dr. J. N. Shumway, village health commissioner, and Dr. H. H. Edwood, decided to quarantine the house in view of the number of cases of the disease in the vicinity until a correct diagnosis of the case could be made. However, Dr. Edwood stated that the infective stage of the disease has passed.

The young lad is suffering from a paralytic left leg which may be the result of an operation on the limb which he sustained several years ago.

POTATO TOURS
BEGIN SOON

Will Cover Howard and West Cohocton; To be Held August 13-19

BATH, Aug. 13.—Potato field tours have become an annual affair in Steuben County with the idea is to bring together, for the consideration of common problems and in large numbers, the potato growers of this the second and greatest potato county of New York State. The need of events of this sort is apparent when it is considered that Steuben produces and ships about a million and a half bushels of potatoes each year.

The tours this year will cover Howard and West Cohocton where potato production is very intensive. Fay Bennett is chairman of Howard tour which will be held August 13 and 14 and will cover visits to the farms of Stanley Fox, and William West. Howard tour on concrete roads, Charles and Harry Planders, Fay Bennett, Bert May, and Sherman Lyke. The period at Mr. Fox's farm will be at 10 o'clock. A basket lunch will be served at the home of the visit to Mr. Bennett's and here too there will be a short speaking program. R. Hardenburg and Charles Chapp both of Cornell University have been invited by the committee in charge to attend the tour and make a study of the potato growers and producers from other counties. It is expected to visit the county on this day.

An excursion will be a program arranged by the Steuben bureau for the women who will attend the tour. Mrs. W. H. Edwood and menus will be discussed by the local women prominent in the organization who have made a study of these subjects.

The tour of August 19 which has been organized by Lee Edmunds of Cohocton will start at the home of Sam Slick, at 10 o'clock. Mrs. W. H. Edwood, Mrs. John Slick, Clark Wallace, Floyd Rorick and Blon Slayton.

The basket picnic and speaking program will be at the home of John Slick.

BOUNCING BOARD DEMANDS CASH

Kearns Promises Good Now Only When Backed by a Bond for $25,000.

NEW YORK, Aug. 15.—(AP)—Jack Kearns, manager of Mickey Walker and Jack Dempsey, called at the offices of the New York State Athletic Commission but did not get any action involving the proposed fight between the two fighters. Kearns said he would not get any action in the commission until Tuesday, when he would appear before the board and demand a $25,000 bond for the amount specified and sign Dempsey's name to the match with Harry Will, the negro challenger.

The commission also refused to discuss with Kearns any subject involving Walker owing to the fact that the body is not yet a legal fighter. Chairman Farley testified that Walker would not fight, the expiration of the time limit for the water-tight contract for the fight with Will. He said that he would not take any action in support of Walker.

After the meeting, Kearns said that Walker would sign a bond for $25,000 and would have it in the commission's hands before midnight tonight.

Mac FARLANE TO PLAY HAGEN AT LATTER'S HOME

ROCHESTER, Aug. 15.—Rochester golf fans will have a chance to see Walter Hagen, Rochester's greatest golf player, in a match with Mac Farlane, present United States open champion, on Tuesday, when the nationally-known pair of amateur golfers will play at the Country Club of Rochester, in an eighteen-hole match. Farlane is the defending champion and Hagen is the challenger.

The big man is usually a slow starter. Jeffries, Schulz and Weller were not. Neither was Frank Gotch, who weighed 280. Gotch was extremely fast with his feet. The fastest fight of his career was against Weller, who played for Virginia University many years ago. Walker weighed 228 and yet ran the 100 in 10 1/4 on several occasions in Southern college track meets. Used modern training conditions over a fast track he could have done 10 flat. That is said to be moving for a 228-pound athlete.

THE WEIGHT DEBATE

At what point in human displacement does weight begin to count with greater effect?
When Jack Kearns suggested a match between Mickey Walker and Gene Tunney there was much laughter on all sides. The proposed Will-Tunney match.
Here are the weight figures:
Tunney, 215; Walker, 183; net difference thirty pounds.
Will, 215; Tunney, 183; net difference thirty pounds.
Will is as much larger than Tunney as Tunney is larger than Walker.

THE ARGUMENT
The argument is advanced that any man over 180 pounds is big enough to meet any one. Also that any one over 200 pounds is handicapped by flesh or bone that interferes with speed and natural agility. The 210-pounder is rarely as fast or as agile as the 185-pounder. The former has more to carry. He has more muscle machinery to get. He can't give Jim Jeffries thirty pounds and make the grade.

Jeff had too much power on his side, and as much as much speed as fast. Dempsey had the speed of the lighter man and punching power of the heavier. He had the legs of a middleweight and the arms of a man weighing 210 or more.
In those days he was a howitzer at field artillery speed.

THIS WEIGHT MATTER is quite intricate. It all depends. Harry Greb might have more trouble with Mickey Walker than he would with a 210-pounder. Greb is a 160-pounder. He has a pretty fast 160-pounder. Greb is a 160-pounder. He has a pretty fast 160-pounder. Greb is a 160-pounder. He has a pretty fast 160-pounder.

Jeffries was abnormally early for a man weighing about 200. He was light on his feet, with a surprising amount of agility. Around 1904 he was one of the greatest physical machines any man has ever known.
Those who say that he had nothing but brute strength are chattering through their feds.

THE JEFFRIES OF 1904 and the Jeffries of 1910 were two different persons. In the six intervening years he had grown fat, partly bald and pudgy.
There have been a few who were well over 200 and yet at the same time were as active as 160 pounds or less.

Henry, tackle at W. and J. was one of these. He weighed 220 and yet was as quick as a quail.
Weller, tackle at W. and J. was another. Weller was around six feet four in height, weighing 240.
"I thought he would be a big dud, getting in everybody's way," said Chick Mehan, who was then coaching Syracuse. "But I changed my mind when Weller ran Zimmerman one of my fastest backs, out of bounds at something close to ten-second speed. He was as fast as a halfback and as big as a mountain."

Schulz, tackle at W. and J. was another. Schulz weighed 242, close upon six feet five in height. Yet as a roving center he was tackling at both ends of the line and sniping fast spring backs with the agility of a Paddy. Weller was around six feet four in height, weighing 240.

THE BIG MAN is usually a slow starter. Jeffries, Schulz and Weller were not. Neither was Frank Gotch, who weighed 280. Gotch was extremely fast with his feet. The fastest fight of his career was against Weller, who played for Virginia University many years ago. BIG LEAGUE BASEBALL

NEW YORK, Aug. 15.—(AP)—For the champion who has yet to defend his laurels in the current campaign there are few cheerleaders in scanning the record of disaster that has befallen many of the erstwhile idols of sports.

It has been a bad year for title holders in most every branch of competition with the prospect of a few additional turndowns before the last goal is kicked off or the final putt holed.

Here are a few of the outstanding casualties among the champions:
1—Willie Hoppe lost the ball to Billard crown to Young Jack. 4-0.
2—Strangler Lewis was tossed off the heavyweight wrestling crown by Wayne Munn, who later was defeated by the veteran Stanislaus Zyzanski.
3—Cannibal Martin dropped the world's bantamweight boxing championship to Charley Rosen.
4—Mike McTigue lost the light heavyweight title to Paul Berner.
5—Jean Borotra's Wimbledon tennis scepter was lifted by his French compatriot, Henri Cochet.
6—W. E. Garrett's Olympic world sculling honors went to Walter Wood.

NEW YORK NATIONALS PLAYING BROOKLYN MAKE SUBSTANTIAL GAIN IN THEIR BATTLE

NEW YORK, Aug. 15.—(AP)—With slightly less than one-third of the race still to be played, the Nationals in both major leagues seem to have been definitely placed out of reach of at least twelve clubs.

Late in July, Chicago in the American and Cincinnati in the National gathered strength and struck out at the leaders in their respective circuits. But it was apparently a mere flash in the pan. Standings today again indicated confidence of the pennant clubs to win the season.

Washington's thrusts at Philadelphia and Cincinnati, the closest of the American League leaders to their persistent rivals, have failed to produce a decisive result. For weeks the lead of the Cardinals has been at the back of the Queens City team, but victory has been elusive. The Athletics have clung to their slender lead in the race for second place.

They struck another brace of victories yesterday, Sam Gray holding the Boston Red Sox off in check while his Philadelphia mates clustered an even dozen bingles to win easily 5 to 3. As further triumph for Washington, the Yankees tied the score in the eighth.

Church Activities in the Week

REV. MILLER, ORANGE, N. Y. AND REV. NORDOS, BUFFALO, WILL SPEAK HERE SUNDAY

Many local pastors are still enjoying their summer vacations and substitutes have been engaged to take their places.

The Rev. Willard J. McLaughlin, assistant pastor at Grace Methodist Episcopal Church will preach both morning and evening at that church in the absence of the pastor, Dr. M. J. Hill, who will be in Chautauque Sunday and Monday. Monday morning he will attend a meeting of the directors of the Lord's Day Alliance at Chautauque.

The Rev. George Miller, pastor of the Washington Street Baptist Church of Orange, N. Y., a graduate of Colgate University and Rochester Theological Seminary and a classmate of the Rev. David E. Haglund will preach at the First Baptist Church Sunday morning.

The Rev. Nordos of Buffalo will occupy the pulpit in the Norwegian Methodist Episcopal Church both morning and evening. The pastor of the church will be present at both services.
