STOCK MARKET IS SLUMPING AS WEEK ENDS

Heavy Sales to Take Profit and Fear of Tighter Money

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—(A.P.) Short selling and profit taking were resumed in the stock market today, causing the entire list to waver after initial exhibitions of strength in the motor and special dividend securities. Weakened by yesterday's speculative recoveries, the market proved vulnerable to attacks from the bear element inspired by the belief that money rates will continue high until the period of monthly settlements has been passed and may be permanent. Demand for a stabilizing business demand for utilthe highpriced industrials, with the weakness of U. S. Steel unsettling the rest of the list. General Electric broke more than 5 points and American Can. Mack Trucks and American Kodak 3 to 4 1/2 points. The market was not so constructively bullish, however. Buying of the baking shares, based on merger reports, lifted General Baking 14 1-2 points to a record high at 192 and brought about moderate advances in Cushman and Ward Baking E. Some of the tobacco and mercantile shares also were under accumulation, i.e. closing was heavy. Sales approach $500,000 shares.

Following the opening of today's market under the leadership of the motor shares, Chrysler opened 4 points higher at 174 and then ran up to a new high record at 176. Initial trading at this point or more also were recorded by U. S. Rubber, American Tobacco and St. Joseph Lead, the last named responding to the declaration of an extra dividend of $1.00.

Public operations were a dominating influence on the price movement. Public utilities were again taken in hand, Pacific Gas and Electric quickly advancing 5 3/4 points and Brooklyn Edison

Briggs Body covering stimulated the rise in the motor and accessory stocks, Moon rising 2 points and Briggs Body, Smart-Warner and Mack Truck moving up 1 to 1 1/2 points.

Briggs Body dropped a point on the reduction in the dividend and Hudson Motors recorded a similar loss on realizing. Reports of expanding trade operations and plans for new earnings led to a number of special dividend distributions, were all advanced as explanations for the buying of various issues. American Can moved up nearly 3 points to 244 1/2 and then broke to 239 1/2 before the

New York Day

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—West

Fifty Third street today was the Black Belt. Jim Europe who made a fortune as a jazz leader,

was about to build a home there when he met tragic death. Had he lived it is predicted the migration to Harlem would not have taken place.

ABOUT THE only district that never changes in New York is the winding, twisting streets of Chinatown. The same scared and shuttered houses of 20 years ago are there. Door sills are worn thin by the long procession of shuffling slippers. Now and then an educated Chinese with an Orfordian overtone speaks the narrow streets with his manners and dress but that is all. Chinatown remains a ramshackle shell apparently without a soul.

SPEAKING OF changes, they say Harry Kemp is no longer the tramp poet. He used to travel to the fleshpots of the East and

Our common skunk bears a bad name, but he is really a gen-

many calls weekly for trained help. It is a part of the policy of the Meeker Institute to give free

employment service to both graduate and employer. We always make a special effort to serve both promptly.

The General Secretary and officials of the Y. M. C. A. were pre-the assembly this week. Mr. H. W.

Reed introduced Mr. Dean H. W.

Temple, the Physical Director. He gave a very interesting talk on

Physical Hygiene. Mr. Reed

also introduced Mr. Dan Pitt who sang several vocal numbers. Mr.

Reed's associates accompanied him

at the piano.

The Y. M. C. A. is to be complimented on its complete an-efficiency in conducting the affairs of the local association and also produce an interesting entertainment.

BOGUS MONEY PASSED AGAIN

Elmsira Police Tracing That May Be Linked with Local Scheme

The Elmsira police are now developing their efforts to trace the counterfeiters who circulated spurious $20 bills in Elmsira

last week. It is believed coming from the same source as the bogus $10 bills circulated in Corning last July. As yet no information has been received from the police believe that the same gang who operated throughout this section last summer are responsible for the series of counterfeit $20 bills.

It is known that a counterfeit plant in New York, where the counterfeit bills were made, was active in June by Department of Justice officials but at that time hundreds of the spurious bills had already been distributed among agents who could not be located in the general

clueless.

The third spurious twenty dollars passed in Elmsira during the present week came to the attention of the police there yesterday when it was turned in by the proprietor of a grocery store. The description of the young woman who passed the bogus notialties exactly with that obtained from a most market where the spurious $20 bill was passed

Wednesday and from a restaurant where another was passed Thursday evening. In all cases the procedure has been the same, the young woman being accompanied by a companion

entering the business establishment and ordering a small amount of merchandise, tendering

one of the spurious bills in payment and departing with the change.

With the appearance of these two women the number of persons known by Elmsira police to have been passed in the circulation of counterfeit bills during the past three months has amounted to six.

Of these, three, two Grandville

and one from the hands of the

Russo and Elmsira of Elmsira,

who were apprehended last week by a Federal grand jury at Canandaigua. The other two were arrested at Canisteo and brought to Corning. They were held there placed nearly 20 spurious $10 bills.

gaman Friday to attend the

monial, which was held yesterday.

MY FIRST DOLLAR

How I Earned It

Percy A. Payne, justice of the peace at Painted Post, was member of the firm of Payne,

"I earned my first dollar as a salesman when I was but followed that business ever since. At that time I lived with my father, Glen R. Payne,

Pa., and that summer we had an exceptionally large crop of potatoes. Taking a heavy load of this cabbage and driving a hired mule I drove six miles to a lumber

camp where I sold my pro-

After I returned home, moth-

ROBBER GETS

$20 IN HOLDUP

James Gardina, 77 William

Street, Victim of Gunman

in His Shop

After scouring the sixth and seventh wards and the yards of the Erie and New York Central randomly in search of the stranger

Gardina, of 77 West William street, of the local police were forced to relinquish their search at a late hour last evening without finding a trace of the hold-up man.

About 8 o'clock last evening

Mr. Gardina was at work in his shop repair shop, a stranger, poorly clad and having the appearance of a tramp walked into the place and pulling a revolver

from his pocket ordered the proprietor to "throw up his hands."

The stranger then reached over the counter, opened the cash register and took the money in the drawer, which amounted to about $20. He then dashed out of the place.

Gardina notified the police immediately and Acting Detective

William Morse and Traffic Officer

David Crandall made a thorough search of the neighborhood and the nearby railroad yards without any results.

The stranger was described as being about five feet nine inches tall, slim built, dark complexion and dark brown hair. His face was dirty and his clothes were old and soiled. He wore a cap.

DEMOCRATS TO MEET MONDAY

With no Democratic candidates in town offices in the field and the G. O. P. tight lining every interest on the neck and neck scrap between the two parties, the Democrats are expected to meet Monday evening, to select their candidates for the coming year.

Political posters are at large as the probable action of the Democrats is being waited for, and that they are just waiting until after the caucus tonight, to announce candidates for every town office, while others are already certain that several of the Democrats will happen tonight. The Democrats will either endorse or nominate candidates for the coming year as the Democratic nominee.

NO RECHECK OF CENSUS IN TEBUCHEN EXPECTED

While a recheck of the state census has been ordered in some parts of the state those in charge of the work in Tebuchen county can congratulate themselves that criticism has yet been heard of the work in this county and the results will in all probability not have to be rechecked.

None of those in charge have received any notification ordering a rechecking here as yet and this is not apt to come at this date. The work here was done very carefully under the supervision of Supervisor Milo Haynes of Hornell and Deputy Supervisor Mrs. J. L. Miller of this city and it is thought by those who know the situation to be extremely accurate.

TESTING OFFICE IS AUTHORIZED

Western New York Prohibition Department to Analyze Wet Goods

Captain J. P. Buffalo, federal agent in charge of the prohibition enforcement department, received word from Washington yesterday approving the plan of the prohibition office in Buffalo of an office for the testing of all proprietary preparations containing alcohol.

The purpose of the prohibition law is to keep the country has been flooded with manufactured, composed and, although disguised as patent medicines and lotions, contain certain sufficient quantities to make them saleable as beverages.

Heretofore the manufacturers of these proprietary preparations submitted their formulae and the failure of the prohibition office in Washington for analysis and approval. As a result the office was swamped with thousands of applications consisting of hair lotions, hair preparations and cough medicines and the national bureau of more than 200 chemists and the corps of clerical workers.

The new plan, under the supervision of Captain Williams, will be the headquarters for the application of the prohibition law to the northern and western districts of the state and will have full power to approve or reject the products offered for analysis.

Establishment of the office will give Administrator Merrick greater supervision over the withdrawal of the alcohol from the market and the preparation of Allen S. Bartlett, representative assistant in charge of permits, will be given 30 full time against this form of prohibition work.

Captain Williams' office is enlarged and he will be given several assistants and a clerical staff.

CALENDAR OF CITY STARTED

Chamber of Commerce Urges Registration of All City Functions

The annual Community Calendar has been started for the winter season at the Chamber of Commerce office.

Last year this saved the community attendant upon conflicting functions, that had in the past, many times hopelessly raised official functions.

The calendar will be written up three months in advance. All civic societies, churches, fraternal organizations and other bodies, should report in their dates before they definitely settle upon them, first to ascertain if the date is clear and second to secure a clear space for themselves.

Civic societies, having regular dates, should give notice of any change in their dates, as given in the calendar, to the Chamber of Commerce, so that they can be changed in time to avoid confusion.

This community calendar service is free. The Chamber of Commerce gladly undertakes it to try and avoid the confusion of past years in community events. The weak point in the calendar, the beneficiary who neglects to help the Chamber to help them.

Cadillac Custom Five-Passenger Coupe

Simplicity in the NEW CADILLAC

Only a gigantic organization such as Cadillac, containing within itself the necessary resources of men and machinery, could institute improvements and refinements at once so vast and so minute as those of the new Cadillac.

In this new Cadillac engine, for example, there are no rocker arms or levers. The valve action is positive and direct. The cam slides or tappets through which the valves are opened and closed are operated directly from the camshaft by means of rollers contained in the cam slides themselves.

This ultra-refinement eliminates thirty-two wearing surfaces. It increases the durability of the engine and makes operation even more quiet.

To guard and protect Cadillac quality in even the smallest detail has been the constant aim, and the result, in this magnificent new Cadillac, is ample reward and justification for the painstaking effort.

Try This New 90-Degree Cadillac

You will agree that it rises to heights of performance you never dreamed could be achieved. It is mobile and facile as thought—exuberantly responsive to every demand you make of it. Everywhere it is meeting enthusiastic and cordial welcome as the finest car in the world today.

COACH JAMES IS QUALIFIED FOR HIS WORK

New Official at C. F. A. Has Had Varied Career in Sports Lines

George James, the assistant football coach at the C. F. A. who was graduated from the Springfield College last year, has had training in all sports under Coach MacFarland, who was "The Forward Pass in Football." The man, who is now with the Boston Braves and Coach Rothacker, who is considered a very good coach in football. While he was playing under these coaches, he was also learning the main points about all sports.

Mr. James is well developed in the art of wrestling, he being on the wrestling team in Springfield College for three years and captain the last year. "Jim" as he was called by his fellow students, was the champion wrestler in his college the last year when he attended. Letters on the wrestler in the accompanying picture stand for "Springfield Wrestling Club."

Mr. James earned the B. P. E. degree, Bachelor of Physical Education, for his ability in all sports. He also was appointed American Red Cross examiner. To fill this position he had to earn the name of Master of Aquatics and be appointed from Washington, D. C. He examines persons who wish to qualify for the Red Cross Life Saving Exam.

James has been physical director at various boys' camps. Last year he held that position in a private boys' camp in Harrison, Maine. From last September to this spring, he was assistant director at the Holyoke Boys' Club. Our new coach has a very pleasing way of doing things, and the quick way in which he takes under him his response to his commands show that he is very well liked.

RACES AT BATH WILL ATTRACT

Race Secretary Collins Announces High Class Program for County Exhibition

BATH, Sept. 25.—John M. Collins, race secretary for the St. John's County Fair, and well known to horsemen throughout Western New York, is working overtime in arranging the races and securing entries for the events scheduled at the County Fair to be held at Bath, September 29-October 2. Not only will there be more horse racing, but the horses will be selected animals that have worked on the major circuits. The races for several years past have been one of the most interesting features of the Bath fair and the society is desirous of making this year's program contain the reputation as gained by the society in this line.

ROCHESTER—Under the terms of the will of Amelia C. Bissell, formerly of No. 79 Ruffalo Street, the Hillside Home for Children, in Geneva avenue, is given the residue of her estate and probably will receive upward of $150,000.

CORNELL HAS SUSQUEHANNA AS OPPONENT

ITHACA, Sept. 25.—Cornell ran up 91 points against Susquehanna in a mid-November game last season. But no such total is looked for today when the two teams meet the Pennsylvania collegians in the opening game of the season.

The Cornell eleven is still in the early stages of development. Gil Doble, suspended last week yesterday, and sent the first three eleven through a final signal drill on the variety gridiron. He still declined to give a lineup, but except for the backfield there is little uncertainty.

About the makeup of the team, Pennell, Schumacher and Otto started on the wings this afternoon. Captain Kearney and Evans were at tackle. Carey, Munns and Anderson at guards and at play-d center. Webster, who started at quarterback, gave way to Tilton, a clever little substitute who says he is coming to the front.

DOZEN RADIO STATIONS TO BROADCAST GAMES

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—Judge Lewis Mountain Landis, high commissioner of baseball, has given of broadcasting a play by play report of each of the twelve series games through a chain of broadcasting stations. Twelve stations will broadcast: WEAZ, Hartford, Conn.; WO, Philadelphia; WCAE, Pittsburgh; WCAP, Washington; WCTB, Worcester, Mass.; WGY, Schenectady, N. Y.; WGN, Chicago; KDKA, Pittsburgh; and WMAZ, Chicago.

EARLY TROUBLE

This will be a season of early trouble for one of the leading gridiron set. For example, there are Illinois and Red Grange. On next Saturday this combination steps out against Nebraska with one of the best football teams in America. Nebraska is coming to Grange with a big, fast backfield, headed by the brilliant Lockett, who has turned in a 100 below 10 seconds. And Nebraska is coming with a line headed by Weir, one of the finest tackles in the world.

NEBRASKA AND ILLINOIS

It will be worth a journey to Urbana from far places to see Grange and Weir alone do their stuff. Both were 1924 sensations. Grange stepped out as the greatest back of the year, one of the greatest of all time. He probably was the greatest running back that ever carried a football over an opponent's goal. Weir, in a job not quite so close to the spotlight, was almost as brilliant as Grange. This big tackle was fast enough last spring to put Kinney and Taylor, the Olympic hurdle stars, and a great hurdler must have both speed and agility. Weir has both, and in addition he has weight, power and experience.

There will be two all-star backfields in action when Nebraska and Illinois meet in action, and this contest should be one of the best early season games ever played.

A FEW OTHERS

There are others who, on October 10 Pennsylvania goes to Providence, where Brown will be waiting with a strong team in a new stadium. On the same day Yale may have more trouble with Georgia. Yale had beaten Georgia by lopsided scores in 1922 and 1923.

But a new Georgia team, coached in Notre Dame tactics, hit the floor last fall, and it was the Blue who could win by a single point.

Georgia put an attack that was good for a touchdown and only the failure to kick good saved a tie. Yale finally won, 7-0, but the call was entirely too close.

Georgia is coming again with a veteran team, bolstered by a number of freshman stars, and this time Tad Jones and his staff will be a trifle more prepared.

The Red and Black from the famous Peach Belt will find the Blue attack a trifle further along, with Bunnell at quarter and big Kline ready with more experience. Yale will have a flock of good backfield material to use in this game with Bunnell, Kline, Allen, Pailing, Cottle, Culler and others, and most of them will get a chance on the eve of the coming Pennsylvania test.

OPENING GAMES ON MANY GRIDIRON TO INDICATE STRENGTH

1925 Form of Several Elevens May be Guessed at After Today—Coach Rockne as Gloomy as Gil Doble

On a hundred green fields, crossed with white lines, American youth, helmets gleaming and bright jerseys, will await the whistle calling them to action this afternoon. It's the opening day of the 1925 football season.

Interest in this section centers in the local school games and the kind of teams put on the gridiron by Cornell, Syracuse, Robert College, Notre Dame and Yale. All will open their seasons today.

At Syracuse C. W. C. (Pete) Reynolds has taken over the reins. The Orange, if Reynolds follows past coaching '76, will be a more interesting team to watch for Yale believes '76, taking chances. Under the new coach Little was left to the fate of the gridiron. Cornell opens with Susquehanna at Ithaca, Rockne as gloomy as Gil Doble.

TUNNEY PUTS MADDEN OUT IN 3D ROUND

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Sept. 25.—Tunney, the world champion, knocked out Bartley Madden, 26, of New York, in the third round of the 15-round bout here last night. The knockout came after one and one-half minutes of fighting in the third round.

BATH HIGH SCHOOL ATHLETIC OFFICERS

BATH, Sept. 25.—The athletic association of the Bath High School, organized at a meeting held on Wednesday evening by the trustees of Bath High School, President John Van Dusen, vice-president, Besse Dalton; secretary, Everett Meade; treasurer, and coach, Prof. Frederick Page. Class basketball teams will begin practice within the coming two weeks. The school will not be represented on the football field this season. Prof. Page, the physical instructor, states that only those students who are able to secure a high certificate as to their fitness for the game, together with the written permission of the trustees, may play football, would be considered. As only eleven pupils so qualified, the organization of the football squad was abandoned.

Kevin Morning took a 25 on his first nine holes and was one down. He came in with a card of 26, just one over par, and secured the match up they stopped for lunch. He started out strong in the afternoon, shot par golf over the first nine holes and was two up at the turn.

The 25th hole was halved. Hagen took the 25th and was three up but lost the 30th and again was two up. They halved the 31st. Cooper won the 32nd when Hagen went into a trap. Hagen won the 33rd when Cooper missed his drive. They halved the 34th and Hagen won the 35th when Cooper's drive was just short of a creek that runs in front of the green. This gave Hagen the match, 3 and 2.

Mellhorn Easy Winner

The Straw on the Camel's Back

Goah! Folks are hard headed.

There is still an element of auto owners who claim it does not make any difference what gasoline or motor oil you use. One of them steps forward to prove his claim by saying:

"I have driven this car six months; it has gone five thousand miles; it is still running like a sewing machine; I have never paid any attention to the kind of gas or oil I bought."

Quite so. Indeed most cars are built these days to take care of just such maltreatment as this. We will hand it to the manufacturers; they have developed an almost super-machine in the present day automobile.

And yet—there is the story of a last straw that broke the camel's back. No manufacturer can build a machine that will continue to stand up under the wrong fuel and lubricant. Old man Decatur's car is his work eventually, and with vengeance.

But METRO gasoline and GARGOYLE Mobiloil, if used constantly, stop depreciation before it sets in. So fine a piece of mechanism as the engine in your car—regardless of its make—deserves the best fuel and lubricant you can buy. And that is METRO Gasoline and GARGOYLE Mobiloil.

Receiving the Gentiles on the simple condition of faith in Christ provided a new era of growth in the church. Through the middle wall of partition was broken down and the universal redemption God makes no distinction between Jew and Gentile.

James shows to the Jewish believers that the Gentiles were passing through sore trials and persecutions, that true religion is not a matter of outward ceremonial observance, but of the unfeigned Word, and love a self-denying, unselfish life, bridging the gap, helping those in need, and keeping unspotted from the

On the second day of this week is the presentation of the two points, and the central outgoing message, of each lesson. Following suggestions are offered:

August 10. Barnabas separated. God overruled their contention to the wider dissemination of the gospel.

August 16. The believer has been born of the Spirit and of the Word. A mortal conflict goes on within him. The Christian's victory is over the flesh but he yields to the Holy Spirit, who dwells within.

WIDER SPLIT SEEN IN G. O. P. COMMITTEE AS SOME JUMP MEETING

Crowd That Backed Cottrell at County Meeting Stays Away; Hubbard Re-elected Unanimously

The apparent split in the Republican City Committee as evidenced at the reorganization meeting of the county committee held in Hornell this week, when the local delegate vote with the insurgent crowd against the reorganization candidate, has now been opened wider as the result of the meeting of the city or county committee held last evening. There were only nine of the committee present and the new organization was perfected without a dissenting vote, all officers being re-elected unanimously. The seven absent members were those who opposed Mr. Prangen for county chairman at the Hornell meeting.

Gurnsey B. Hubbard was named chairman. S. John Storer, secretary and Joseph D. Baskin, treasurer, the delegates present pointing out that their re-election was a vote of confidence for the successful manner in which these men handled the affairs of the organization during the past year. Those present were: Joseph D. Baskin, S. John Storer, Gurnsey B. Hubbard, Harry W. Pritchard, John C. Wheeler, George W. Pratt, Guy W. Chubb, E. J. Callahan, T. P. O'Bryan, T. P. O'Bryan, proxy for Thomas A. Pratt, the seven members who absent themselves from the meeting.

The absence of the seven committee members who broke away from the organization at the Hornell meeting was in no way a surprise to the regular organization. Chairman Hubbard said today, "I do not feel that the insurgent crowd had made any mistake in the election of the two factions of the committee effect a compromise by naming one of the minority members as the new chairman. According to Mr. Hubbard, Dr. Miller had approached him yesterday afternoon claiming to be spokesman for the minority delegates and said that unless the regular organization could assure him that a chairman would be named from either the sixth or seventh wards that the committee members from these districts would not participate in the meeting."

Chairman Hubbard then informed Dr. Miller that he was "to stay" and he would not consent to any such agreement according to a statement made in the meeting.

Dr. Miller when called on the telephone today pointed out that he had no statement to make at this time although he did defend the action of the minority members by explaining that two years ago and last year the sixth and seventh ward committee members asked for recognition in the organization, which they were refused. He explained further that they were determined not to participate in the organization this year unless they were given assurances that they would be recognized.

Asked as to who the minority committee members had in view for the chairmanship, Dr. Miller stated that no particular candidate had been decided upon. He added, however, that he would not accept the office himself. It is intimated that the city that former Assemblyman J. J. Carpenter had been slated for the job.

What was the result of this break is problematical but it has been pointed out that the committee members who broke away from the organization have placed themselves in the position of withdrawing from the organization. Members of the organization who were present at the meeting last night talked today as if the absence of the minority crowd was a notice that they would not support the district delegates of the Republican party.

It is said that the election law provides that charges of disloyalty can be presented before the committee and that if charges are proven that the committee can be expelled. When this was stated Chairman Hubbard stated that the organization had not considered this angle of the situation.

It's DEADLY to ECONOMIZE in INSURANCE

Every so often we run across a man who realizes that he is not carrying enough insurance on one piece or several pieces of property. His attitude is that money is tight with him and when in a few months he is better prepared to meet the cost he will take it up. But the difficulty is that he procrastinates, he keeps putting off until the unhappy catastrophe occurs. It is at this point that he first takes into consideration the infinitesimally small cost.

If you are carrying fire insurance on your house that does not cover increased valuation, if your car is not insured or only half insured, if in any way you are not satisfied in your own mind that your insurance is adequate, won't you give us an opportunity to help you.

You don't have to call. Phone us.
