BETTER DAYS
FOR FARMERS

Home Bureau Learns That Profit

Will Come to Boy Who

Stays on the Farm

SYRACUSE, Nov. 14.—The outlook for farming as a business is better in the next thirty years than it has been for some time," said Dr. C. E. Lead, director of the extension service of the New York State College of Agriculture

and Forestry, in a speech speaking before the sixth annual conference of the state federation of home-bureau boys today.

"More young men should be preparing for it now than any other time, yet as a matter of fact few are entering the field of agriculture than at any period during the past decade," Farm men, added Dr. Lead, should enter their boys in high school and college as to educate them for agriculture.

Paying a tribute to the women

before him as the mothers of agriculture, he said that the progress of American progress of the future, he said that American farmers and their wives have the finest of civilization.

Farm property, according to

Dr. Lead, is the best thing that any man can have. It is always a mistake to judge of the future of the immediate past. The price of farm property is coming to be the best thing that any man can have. It is always a mistake to judge of the future of the immediate past. The price of farm property is coming to be the best thing that any man can have.

ORAL HYGIENIST FOR CITY SCHOOLS GIVEN DIRECTORS' APPROVAL

Social Service Society Officers Approve Committee Recommendations; Action Most Important Step

At the last meeting of the Directors of Corning, Social Service Society the recommendations of the Committee on Tuberculosis and Public Health relative to oral hygiene were approved.

This is an important step on the part of the directors for it means that with cooperation of the Social Service Society every child in the city will be eventually be provided with the services of an oral hygienist.

The recommendation of the committee was that the Social Service Society cooperate with the school in employing the oral hygienist in an effort to block disease, especially tuberculosis. As many diseases have their start in infectious conditions of the mouth and as a healthy mouth does much in the prevention of disease and is one of the first steps in the work of preventive medicine this worker will undoubtedly accomplish much in the prevention of tuberculosis among the children of the city.

Public and private nurses and others interested in city problems unite in stating that an oral hygienist is a much needed factor in the public school life of the community.

Money for the portable equipment of the hygienist has been partially donated by the organization. The salary of the hygienist will be paid by the money raised by the sale of Christmas Stamps. This will mean that more Christmas Stamps than ever will have to be sold this year and it is hoped that every one will co-operate in this matter. Plans are not completed as yet but it is hoped that the arrangements completed and the oral hygienist in the schools by the first of the year or sooner.

SHOOTS GUN, MAN IS HELD

Harry Glover Alleged to Have Disturbed Residents of Davis Street

Harry Glover, of 105 Davis street, is being held at the city jail on an open charge following the shooting of a man who complained of Mrs. Arthur Hoover, of 124 Davis street, when it was claimed the man was shooting a gun in the neighborhood and that he was intoxicated.

About 11 o'clock last evening the police received a telephone call from a woman giving the name of Howe who said that a drunken man was doing a lot of shooting in the neighborhood. Officers Hammond and Rose found Glover with a loaded gun and when they asked him what he was doing he said that he was shooting in the air. According to the police the man had been given complaints against the man, that the illness was reported to District Attorney Charles Cheney and it is expected that a further investigation will be made.

DARRIN DOG IS POISONED

Report Animal Owned by S. W. Darrin was Victim of Dog Poisoner

No new complaints have been received by the police during the past two days concerning the poisoning of dogs in the hill section of the city. It has been learned, however, that about a week ago a dog owned by S. W. Darrin, of 144 Pine street, died under mysterious circumstances. It was believed the animal was being taken ill that it had been struck by an automobile but it developed later that the illness was caused by a dose of poison.

One of the third and fourth wards have been troubled by dogs being poisoned for a number of the outrage has been discovered. Investigations have been made by the owners of the animals killed and by the police but at no time has it been possible to get sufficient evidence to cause an arrest to be made. The dog was still working on the case of the recent dog poisoning.

TO REALIZE $250 ON FAIR AT GRACE CHURCH

The fair which was held in the basement of the new Grace Methodist Episcopal Church, under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society of the church Thursday and Friday of this week was very successful. All receipts and bills are not in as yet but something around $250 will be cleared up as to the present $245.19 has been turned in.

Besides the booths which were very attractive and which drew large crowds, the Ladies' Aid Society also served cafeteria supplies each night. The president, Mrs. William B. Jordan, deserves much credit as do the members in charge of the booths and the supporters for the excellent results attained.

CLASS FAIR BIG SUCCESS

R. D. C. Class to Realize Over $100; Entertainment Well Given

Although all bills have not been paid yet for the fair which was held Friday afternoon and Saturday morning at the First Methodist Episcopal Church by the R. D. C. Class, those in charge stated this morning that the class would doubtless clear something over $100.

This is an excellent record considering that the class did not collect outside its own membership for donations to the fair.

Attractive booths lined the walls of the gymnasium and luncheon and supper were served by the members of the class. In the evening a program was given including a musical novelty by Charles Lyons, a musical reading by Miss Mildred A. Kettie and a comedy sketch, "Oh Doctor" by the actors.

The scene of the sketch was the scene of the doctor with his usual imitations of a doctor. They included Joseph Andrews playing the part of the doctor with his usual imitations of a doctor. They included Joseph Andrews playing the part of the doctor with his usual imitations of a doctor.

Deaths-Funerals

Mrs. Amelia Neally
The death of Mrs. Amelia Neally, aged 59 years, occurred at her home in Fresno Friday night, November 14, 1923 at 10 o'clock following an illness of a few hours. Although Mrs. Neally has been in ill health for the past two years her death was very sudden. She was born in Reading, Pa., in 1864 and she has made her home in Fresno for the past 45 years. Mrs. Neally was a member of the Fresno Methodist Church. The deceased leaves her husband, James Neally and two daughters, Mrs. Delbert Edwards of Buffalo and Mrs. Frank Ballard of Penn Yan; four sons, David of Fresno and John and James of Fresno; and two brothers, John and Christopher Angleshar, also of Fresno. The funeral will be held at the home Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock and burial will be made in Fresno.

FOOTBALL

NEW HAVEN, Nov. 14.—(A. P.) Princeton was leading her annual Yale by 13 to 6 at the end of the second period of their annual battle today in the bowl between a throng of 75,000.

After the first period had gone scoreless, three touchdowns were scored by the Tigers and the game failed. An eighty two yard run by Skille, the Tiger halfback, for a sensational touchdown, was the feature of the play.

YALE BOWL, New Haven, Nov. 14.—(By A. P.) Yale and Princeton met today in their annual battle at a sale-seventy held before an outpouring of 75,000 faithful fans.

Yale was a heavy pre-game favorite in this crucial test of the rivalry of the Tiger and the Bull dog despite two previous days of rain but the high wind promised to raise a few points and perhaps create "breaks" to upset calculations.

Overhead the sun broke through grey cloud banks intermittently and there was no more than a threat of further rain.

Rival bands helped stir pre-game enthusiasm while roars greeted the arrival of opposing squads for snappy drills.

Princeton kicked off to Gill but the Blue's left end fumbled and Yale's 22 yard line. After a forward pass had straggled—and a burst at the line had yielded only three yards, Skille attempted a drop kick, which was blocked by Captain Jose, of Yale. Yale immediately punted out of danger, the ball being carried 80 yards by the wind.

Second Period Scores
At Philadelphia: End second period Pittsburgh 14; Penn 0. At New York: End second period New York University 20; Trinity 2.

At Ann Arbor: End first period Brown 8; Harvard 1. At Williamsport: End first period Williams 6; Amherst 2.

At Boston: End second period Boston College 6; West Virginia Wesleyan 0.

At Washington: First period Central 5; Georgetown 13.

When Princeton went over the Orange goal line it was the first time since the season that the Syracuse goal had been crossed. The Maroon line held back the Orange line, but the Orange line was in the first down in its own territory, and laying back in wait for the Orange line to make a move, considering the muddy field and the heavy rain, the Orange line was every host totalling more than 40 yards.

Princeton Takes Lead
After the ball had been re-sewed up and down the field, Skille, the Tiger's right halfback, twisted the ball through the entire Yale line and he scored a touchdown. The try for goal failed.

After an exchange of punts, Princeton got the ball on Yale's 22 yard line, after a poor kick out of bounds by Albert Anderson replaced Dignan M. Princeton's backfield, and back in to the line for a touchdown. Again the try for goal failed, making the score Princeton 12; Yale 6.

D'ANDREO CASE IS UNSETTLED

Prisoner Taken to Bath Jail to Await Re-sentencing Here Monday

Although released from Elmira Reformatory five days ago, Peter D'Andreo, this city's still with out knowledge of what disposition is to be made of his case. The defendant was taken from Elmira Institution on a writ of habeas corpus, and he was ordered by Justice A. J. Rodenbeck in Supreme Court here that he make his home in City Court for re-sentencing, the justice holding that he had been illegally sold at the Reformatory on a slight technicality. This decision was made Wednesday.

D'Andreo was taken to Bath jail this morning by the local police but it is expected that he will be returned to City Court here Monday morning for sentencing. The order directing that he be re-sentenced was signed late yesterday afternoon by Justice Rodenbeck as he was waiting for his home in Rochester.

The case is one that has attracted considerable interest. Under the provisions of the penal code a prisoner can not be sent to Elmira Reformatory for a misdemeanor unless there has been a previous conviction of a misdemeanor and it was held by the attorney for the defendant that the records in the case failed to state anything about a previous conviction.

D'Andreo was arrested last March charged with resisting an officer.

Paul's Arrest in Jerusalem
Text—Acts 21:18-23:22

(3) His Zeal (v. 3).
He was as zealous toward God

2. His Attitude Toward Jesus (vv. 4-5).
"I persecuted this way unto the death," so that his attitude was one of hatred as was that of the Jews.

3. How His Attitude Was Changed (vv. 6-16).
While on his way to Damascus with authority to bind the Christians and to kill them, Paul was smitten to the ground by a light from heaven, and the voice of the Lord said, "Why persecutest thou me?" When Paul inquired what he was to do, he was told to go to Damascus where he would be told what to do.

4. The Lord Commissioned him to Go to the Gentiles (17-21).
Before Paul Before the Sanhedrin (22-1:10)

The Roman officer, in order to learn why Paul was arrested, commanded the chief council to assemble, and brought Paul before them.

1. Paul's Earnest Look at the Council (vv. 1-2).

This was a solicitation of their honor to give him a fair hearing, and also a look of conscious integrity and unflinching courage.

2. Paul's Stern Rebuke of the Head of the Council (v. 3).

3. Paul's Appeal to the Pharisees (vv. 13-17)

Seeing that he could not get a fair hearing, and perceiving that the body before him was made up of Pharisees and Sadducees, he appealed to the Pharisees hoping to get their attention, for his preaching had something in common with their belief.

V. The Lord Stood by Paul (v. 11).

This assured him that his course was right, and thus comfort was brought to him.

VI. The Conspiracy to Kill Paul (vs. 15-22).

More than forty men placed themselves under a curse to abstain from eating and drinking until they had murdered him. God defeated their plan without a mir-
