Binghamton Deputy, 91 Gets 'Larger Thief' After 45 Years

LETTER SENT BY GOODRICH

Syracuse, Formerly of Beaver Dams, Tells of Blasted Romance in Berlin

N. COHOCTON POSTMASTER LEAVES POST

SYRACUSE, Mar. 27.—(7P)—"My little romance, the most wonderful romance I have ever had and will probably ever have in this life," John R. Goodrich, former Syracuse University student, who shot and killed Miss Alice Fitzner, of Cleveland, Ohio, in Berlin, Germany, and then committed suicide because she admitted her friendship with a Russian dancer, wrote to a friend in this city under date of January 28.

COHOCTON, Mar. 27.—Postmaster Charles B. Stoddard of Cohocton will retire from civil duty connected with that office on his own request, April 1, 1927, after a contest for the office in which Charles Bush was his chief opponent and last fall he asked by department to be relieved from all responsibility with the office at the expiration of the term of his appointment as its impaired health and partial deafness. Previous to his appointment he had served nearly 22 years continuously under different administrations as assistant postmaster, and for nearly all of the last year he had been in entire charge of the office, the resignation of the former postmaster. Owing to the satisfactory service rendered by him for so long a period, the department offered him the position of assistant again, but he intimated that the position of chief clerk would be preferred by him but that he desired to retire from the work entirely.

"It all happened like this," Goodrich wrote, "Ever since my return, I noticed a case of coldness which steadily developed. When I first returned there were only a trace of it, but I guess I grew better instead of leaving her alone I tried to win her back by being too good. It was a great mistake. "I was wondering what it was that made her act so coldly. Then I learned, after she had returned ahead of me, she met a Russian dancer and she fell for him. I was into several times, and he had a face that only a mother could love."

The size limit for clerk is 65 years, and the department still offered him that position, but latest advice are that his request for retirement has been finally accepted. Practically all of his business life has been passed at North Cohocton where he has resided in the same house since late 1887. He has been for many years an official member of the Methodist Episcopal church and a frequent contributor to the church and other publications.

"I took off my glasses and laid my watch on the table, put on a jersey, and went out to kill the hours of leisure."

He then follows a paragraph in which he describes an interview with the girl, during which he talked her with friendship with Miss Fitzner, which she admitted. "This confession," he wrote, "threw me into my old despairing rage of jealousy."

"I went down to the stage door and waited for him to come," Goodrich formerly said. "Alice, pleaded with me not to harm him, but I was seeing red. I waited there for some time, but he would not come out. I later learned the reason. All he did shortly after I did and warned him that I was after him. "I said for him again that night but Alice again warned him, and I am about convinced that I have not the girl whom I love more than any girl else in life."

He then follows a paragraph in which he describes an interview with the girl, during which he talked her with friendship with Miss Fitzner, which she admitted. "This confession," he wrote, "threw me into my old despairing rage of jealousy."

ASBURY PARK, N. J., Mar. 27.—(4P)—Dr. Edwin P. Underwood, 93 years old, physician, was held today on a warrant issued by a 91 year old deputy sheriff charging him with stealing a horse and wagon in Binghamton, N. Y., 45 years ago.

Obadiah spent last night in jail and today pleaded not guilty before Judge Lewis T. Tamm. He was arraigned in court of his county for thirty days pending extradition proceedings.

The arrest was made by Deputy Sheriff Black, an attaché of Binghamton law enforcement officers for 55 years. He noted the aged surgeon's picture in an illustrated newspaper story and came to Asbury Park where he was arrested. He had been guarded for almost half a century. Black said that Obadiah under the name of Edwin Turner was indicted and escaped jail in Utica in 1881 before many years had passed. Obadiah served in the Crutcher war for many years and was in the British merchant marine service. He also spent a number of years in Australia. The horse and wagon, valued at $100, were recovered, the deputy sheriff stated.

GO AFTER SUCCESS

Do not forget that no one is going to hand you a ready-made success on a silver platter. Success doesn't come to you. It comes only through struggle, fight and struggle to achieve, and if anyone is too lazy to strike out and do something to gain success for himself, he shouldn't expect anyone else to get for him. You and everyone else, has a right to succeed. But to get that right, you must have the courage, initiative, backbone and ambition to go after it.

LENTEN MEDITATION

SAT., Mar. 27—Overcoming the World. Read Jn. 16:28-32. At 12:22 hrs. of most churches, have overcome the world. Meditation—We are afraid, filled with dismay. The voice of Jesus calls through the darkness "Be of good cheer." He bids us to be "unfraid," to have confidence in Him, to have courage. The world can be overcome. "I have overcome"—he is present with us—Watch, pray, act in his spirit and you will overcome the world. It is obedient faith in him which overcomes the world.

"Be strong and of good courage, and do not fear them, for there is a greater with us than with him. With him is an arm of flesh, but with us is Jesus who overcomes the world." "For all your days prepare. And meet them ever alike: When you are the hammer, strike."

Prayer—O Eternal and Almighty God, Father, Thou didst change unstable Simon, impulsive with good purpose but vacillating as water into a man of prayer, who could transform the faint heartedness of the coward into the valor of the hero. Deeds that shall not fear the arm of flesh with its strength to work us harm; so, nor the tongue of fire, its malice or its guile. Amen.

Prayer for the Week O Heavenly Father, we behold the promise of thy redemption. Look for the great interest of thy kingdom; for the salvation of all men, and for the conversion of the kingdoms of this world into the Kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. For the working out of this, thy purpose, endow thy children, we beseech thee, with humility, faith, self-denial and spiritual power, that all we are and have may be at thy command and redemption shall cover the earth as the waters cover the sea. And this we ask for thy love's sake. Amen.

The Prince of Life and Death. KINGDOM OF HEAVEN. Max, the King of Kings, Mt. 21:1-11. Text: Zech. 9:9. Behold Thy King.

Meditation—Princes and nobles pledged allegiance to a Hapsburg Queen as she lifted high her tiny babe crying "Behold thy children, we beseech thee, with humility, faith, self-denial and spiritual power, that all we are and have may be at thy command and redemption shall cover the earth as the waters cover the sea. And this we ask for thy love's sake. Amen."

Alexander, under whom Zoroastrian prophesied and Christ to plot the people but to serve and save. Palm Sunday is the jubilant festival of the common people and the King who let himself to make them free.

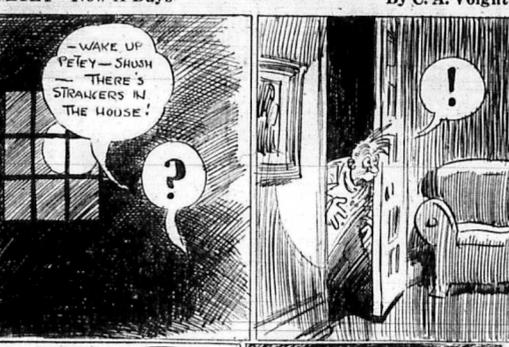

Prayer—O Thou Royal Christ, lift the royalty to the royalty of the humble spirit, be patient with us. Lord of mercy, till we begin to live the life of thy beatitude. We would follow Thee through the sunrise gate into the great court of the peoples there to be glorified in serving. Amen.

The Tax of 1926 The tax act of 1926 has been assailed as unfair to the man of small means. That attack has been made in and out of Congress. Nothing could be more false. Hundreds of thousands of H. H. Haysley and who will pay of the lists. Income of less than $1,500 do not pay a cent. Married citizens with less than $2,500 a year pay nothing. On those over less than $3,000 the tax is withheld trivial. It is hardly felt until it is $12,000 is reached.

The average income will pay no tax for the national income average is below $3,500. Exemptions have been raised and rates lowered. The income taxpayer might as well be described as a member of an "exclusive class." The "common people" the politician always talks about are passed by. Surplus reduction has been more than offset by the political shenanigans in the lower incomes.

In most of its features and backed by Democratic strength the Mellon Plan has been at least a step toward the right. Congress dared block it no longer. This has been a triumph of sound statesmanship and common sense over the wrong breed of politics. It has been a bitter fight for more than two years, but the results for the citizen, for business and national development should prove worth all the fighting.

TURN ME OVER

BERLIN

What's Old, Interesting and New in Europe (By The Associated Press) BERLIN, Mar. 25.—(AP) The famous shirt, advertised as being "scientifically built for comfort" has made its appearance in smart haberdasheries. The right edge of the Hutmarsk shirt is about one inch shorter than the left. It takes its name from the Iron Chancellor who sought introduction of the idea without avail 20 years ago. Prince Bismarck had ordered a dozen custom-made shirts from a Berlin shirt maker. A few days later Princess Bismarck complained by letter that the sleeves of several lengths. The firm apologized and begged for the return of the consignment. To the company's surprise however, Bismarck personally sent congratulations on the ingenuity of the tailor. "Wittner," most of us do, with my right hand," the Chancellor wrote, "I have been annoyed by the interference of the cuff with the free movement of the right hand. The right sleeve in your shirts is shorter than the left; hence the cuff does not

Outstanding Grange Declarations

1. The National Grange demands an equalization of railroad freight rates, so that the American farmer shall not longer carry a heavier load as compared with other industries; oppose any horizontal increase in freight rates until such equalization shall be made.

2. The National Grange favors such consolidation of railroads as shall eliminate as compared with other industries, reduce the overhead costs and remove the necessity for raising operating rates with the public interests fairly represented in all utilities and control boards.

3. The National Grange insists that county agricultural agents shall extend their activities to include aiding the farmer in his marketing as well as production problems, making these government agencies aid in balancing production with distribution, on a sound business basis.

4. The National Grange advocates establishing an Agricultural Day in October of each year, when by proclamation the President and through observance in schools, over the radio, and by other means of publicizing the fundamental importance of the farmer's industry and its relation to the general welfare shall be stressed to a nation prophesied and Christ to plot the people but to serve and save. Palm Sunday is the jubilant festival of the common people and the King who let himself to make them free.

5. The National Grange decides to take the lead in calling, at an early date, a conference of state executive committees of all disseminating farm organizations in the United States to initiate a constructive national-wide program of definite farm leadership.

The Worker is Turning Capitalist

Few of us realize that wealth in this country is being quietly redistributed. Savings and insurance accounts are growing in number and volume at a staggering rate; shares in utilities and large industrial corporations are being bought by workers are establishing their own banks, and underwriting large bond issues.

The worker is turning capitalist. The specter of this is bound to be improved co-operation between capital, labor and management. Twenty more years of progress comparable to that made in the last twenty will find the man of the street enjoying interest, dividends and profits on a grand scale.

As workers invest their funds in sound securities, and enjoy returns in dividends, they learn the true nature of capital and the true economic organization. They perceive that the man of thrift and self-control is worthy of and entitled to reward. They understand that only their ability and willingness to save limits them in adding to their principal and interest.

A man who has once been the owner of thrift and accumulated wealth which he has made $50 a year is better off than the man who has had the agitator who tells him his situation is hopeless.

In L'il Old New York

By O. O. McIntyre

Water Lippmann, discussing Cal. House's members in the pages of Foreign Affairs (New York), thinks the chief fault of President Wilson's foreign policy was his failure to define American aims before entering the war. He writes: "Mr. Wilson had prepared for the order of war in practice as he prepared for it in principle, his claims to supreme greatness among statesmen would not be open to dispute. But the record of these memoirs shows that he and House chose to tell them. They had no secret service and no diplomatic service which could inform them either as to the secret enangements of the secret intrigues of European governments, and they never learned before the declaration of war that there were in existence solemn and binding agreements which were bound in large measure to prevent the making of a just and conciliatory peace as they needed for the foundation of a successful League of Nations. Therefore, they missed the golden opportunity of making pledges from the Allies for an American peace. The Allies had to be helped of humanity and they got American help for nothing, and by that disastrous oversight the whole grand purpose of Wilson was almost wrecked at Paris."

"The fame of House will depend of course upon the fame of Wilson, just as much as fame will depend upon the success of the League of Nations. House, to me, is bound to share in whatever fame Wilson may achieve, for it is evident even from the scanty records available that he helped more than any other man, and that he helped disinterestedly, to commit Wilson to the cause of the League. It seems to me that the consequence whether or not the fulsome judgments of his biographer are accepted by the cause of the League, the friends are of his permanent importance."

"The same is true of a man who is a full-fledged teacher and a full-fledged knowledge will change the perspective in which these letters and diaries are set, and there will emerge, I feel sure, in place of the picture of a man who directed destiny, the picture of a man who stood faithfully at Wilson's side and against Wilson's direct destiny, and that in that vain and often blind resistence did help to bring light to the generations to come."

NEWS FROM THE TRAINING CAMPS

(By The Associated Press.)
Tampa, Fla., where the New York Giants pitched their tent and declared themselves quite ready to resume the quarrel with the Washington Senators.

In the World Series of two seasons ago, Bucky Harris and his capital athletes upset every bucket of cold water that was thrown at them. The McGraw men departed for their homes with the help of the players' purse, but the New Yorkers were not convinced of the superiority of the team which defeated them.

An attempt to end the argument failed last spring, each club winning two games. The fans began again today, with Walter Johnson, the big train of Washington, ready to go to the mound for the first of the three scheduled battles. McGraw seems confident his 1926 club beat any in the world, not barring the Senators.

Pittsburgh's dashing Pirates returned their numbers injured and proved their cleanness yesterday by demonstrating the hitting strength which won the 1925 world pennant. Against the Holywood, Calif.-Stars, Wright hit two home runs and three doubles. Pittsburgh Nationals and the New York Yankees today landed in Waycross, Ga., to entertain the Braves. Brooklyn has sent Hut Jones, outfielder, and Bloneste first baseman, to Jersey City Interlocking, and Struelick, infielder, to Jackson, Miss.

MASONS HAVE GOOD BOWLERS

BATH, Mar. 27.—The newly organized Blue Lodge League in the local Masonic tournament opened up with fireworks last night, when the Mechanics cleaned house with the Hookhums by a wide margin of 16 to 6 pins.

The Brookhums, to whom the credit for the reorganization of the league is largely due, are high roller with an average of 131 for the major series, and having two games of 193 each, and one of 157. Following the match Captain Bert Thompson of the winning squad treated the players on the team to a fine lunch. NEW UNIFORMS ARRIVE FOR PAINTED POST NINE

Eight new uniforms recently purchased have arrived at Painted Post High School and according to announcement from the school the call for candidates for baseball will be issued within about three weeks.

Prospects are for an extremely good team this year. The major champion is in view. The larger number of the members of last year's team are still in school and will report for practice when the call is issued.

The Hookhums at present Coach Hurt lacks a good hurler and will have to improvise one. He has several excellent candidates when he considers likely. He also lost a key pitcher and a first baseman last year. Two teams will be kerried on the roster this year.

ELMIRA WINS SECOND ROUND IN STATE TOURNAMENT FINALS

SYRACUSE, Mar. 27.—Elmira gained the right to compete in the final round of the New York State interscholastic tournament here last night by defeating Franklin Free Academy of Malone in a fast contest by the score of 25 to 18. The Queen City tossers demonstrated their superiority over Malone in every period of the game although the Franklin outfit staged occasional spurts and in the second period seriously threatened the supremacy of the Elmiraans. In the second half, however, the Elmira team's clutching momentum, their score rapidly and had the game on ice in the early minutes of the final period.

DeFilippo, right forward for Elmira, was the outstanding star of the contest. DeFilippo led his team in an attack which broke through the defense of the Malone outfit early in the game while Hoffer and Watkins formed a guarding combination which was effective against the offense of the Elmiraans. The majority of Malone's field baskets were made on long shots. DeFilippo scored four field goals and four fouls for a total of 12 points for his team.

CENTRALS SCORE TRIUMPH OVER FORT WAYNE FIVE

ELMIRA, Mar. 27.—The Hoosier Centralists triumphed over the Knights of Columbus quietest of Fort Wayne, Ind., on the army court Friday evening in a contest which was marked by uncharacteristic conduct by the Casey players. The game, which amounted to 19 to 20 in favor of the Centralists, was featured by the brilliant pass work of the Hoosier team and the shooting of Marty Barry who scored four field goals and four fouls for a total of 12 points for his team.

Early in the game it was obvious that the Fort Wayne team was assuming unwise tactics and although referee J. Daniel Dowling of Kadiosted warned the visiting players repeatedly they continued to deliberately foul the Centralists and protested loudly when their fouls were called by the referee.

In the second half the westerners resumed their unsportsmanlike tactics and were booed by the crowd which clamored for action.

CAMBRIDGE WINS

PTENNE, England, Mar. 27.—(AP)—The Cambridge varsity crew, with a substitute rowing at 1000 yds, defeated their old rival at Oxford by five lengths today in one of the fiercest races ever rowed in years. The official time was 19 minutes 29 seconds, five minutes slower than the record established by Oxford in 1911.

Only a Buick Could Stand this Test!

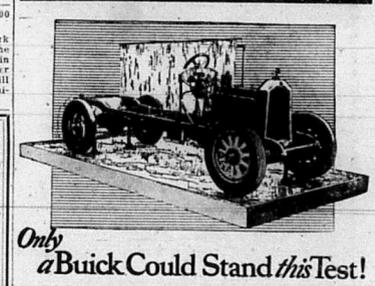

Buick has the only chassis built today that can take a "shower bath" while the engine is running and driving the wheels.

Only Buick provides the design which can undergo such punishment. Of all cars built today, Buick alone has the complete protection of the "Sealed Chassis" and "Triple-Sealed Engine."

Every Buick operating part is "sealed" inside a dirt-tight, oil-tight, water-tight iron or steel housing. The "Triple Seal" (air cleaner, gasoline filter, oil-filter) keeps dirt, grit and moisture out of the engine.

Road flush and grit cannot reach Buick vital parts. Rain and moisture cannot cause short circuits in Buick electrical system. Even the spark plugs are protected!

Come in and see, with your own eyes, why Buick motor cars are more dependable. Only a Buick could stand the "shower bath" test!

RASH BROKE OUT ON BABY'S FACE

Would Scratch Terribly. Healed by Cuticura.

My baby's face broke out in a rash and he would scratch terribly. It steadily grew worse until his face and hands were completely covered with it. It became very itchy causing him to lose sleep and become very restless.

I began to bathe his face and hands, morning and night, with warm water and Cuticura Soap, then put on Cuticura Ointment. After a week's treatment the rash began to disappear and after using one cake of Soap and one box of Ointment he was healed. (Elyand) Mrs. H. J. McChesnut, 274 E. Main St., Chicago Falls, Mass.

S. C. BASSETT DIES IN WEST

Graduate of Corning Free Academy Had an Active and Useful Life

Samuel Clay Bassett, one of the "greats" of Corning Free Academy, having graduated from that institution in 1863, died at his home, 404 Park street, Corning, N. Y., March 14, at the age of 81 years. He is a member of St. George's R. C. Church of Corning.

Mr. Bassett was widely known throughout Nebraska, the state of his adoption, having been prominent in state and county affairs for more than half a century. Death occurred as the result of a severe case of influenza which he contracted in the West, shortly prior to his death and which seriously affected his health.

Samuel Clay Bassett was born in a log cabin in the town of Walton, Delaware County, July 14, 1844. After his graduation from Corning Free Academy in 1863 he enlisted in Company E, 128th New York Infantry, serving until the close of the Civil War, when he was honorably discharged.

In 1867 he married Lucia M. Baker of Nebraska and in 1871 he came with his wife and two children to Nebraska with the Soldiers' Free Homestead Colony. He took a homestead claim of 160 acres in Buffalo county, where the family have since continuously resided and where Mr. Bassett died.

Last June the graduating class of the Corning Free Academy was the recipient of a letter from Mr. Bassett, describing his own road and comparing it with the graduation exercises of today which are held in a modern building equipped with the latest including electric lights which were absent from their own school over the exercises of 62 years ago.

The Shelton Clipper, the local paper of Shelton, Nebraska, printed a long obituary record of the accomplishments and life history of Mr. Bassett, who is described as one of the foremost citizens of the community in which he lived for over half a century. Sincere regret at his passing from a host of friends from every portion of the state was indicated in the paper. Although an accident a few years ago, prevented Mr. Bassett from doing his usual work in connection with the many friends and acquaintances he had made and with the organizations to which he had given his support in earlier days by correspondence.

"The colony made settlement here April 1, 1871 and Mr. Bassett taught five terms of school, the first being the first term of winter school taught in the country. He served for twenty years as a member of the school board in District No. 8. He was secretary of the first Buffalo County Agricultural Society, 1875, was a member and served two terms as president of the board, 1879-1890, and was a charter member of the Nebraska Farmers' Congress, 1910, and of the Nebraska Pure Grain and Seed Growers' Association, 1912. He was secretary of the first Buffalo county republican convention in 1871 and served as a member of the state legislature in 1885 and again in 1911. He was a charter member of G. K. Warren Post No. 113, G. A. R., 1882, of the Order of the Sons of U. W. 1884, of Gibson Camp No. 208, M. W. A., 1886, was vice president of the Nebraska State Historical Society, 1909-15, a charter member and president of the Gibson Library Association, 1910-12, and a charter member and first president of the Nebraska Hall of Achievement, 1916.

"Mr. and Mrs. Bassett were the parents of seven children, all of whom survive. Mrs. Bassett's death occurred February 9, 1907.

The three sons and four daughters are: Mrs. Mary Prouty, Kimball, Nebraska; Mrs. June Wool-

His regiment was on Garrison duty about Washington, after which it was sent to the front and participated in the campaign of Gordon's Division up to the Peninsula and in Maryland March, and was then ordered to Morris Island, S. It participated in the hotly-contested engagements of Virginia and the Carolinas, winding up with Fort Fisher and lost out of a total enlistment of 270 men, 182 killed and wounded. LONDON

What's Old, Interesting and New in Europe

(By The Associated Press)

LONDON, Mar. 26. - (AP) This is a scintillating party to attend the three courts of the King and the House of Burgundy in the palace that applicants may be forced to "draw straw" to select the lucky individuals.

"An unprecedented number of applications has been made to the Lord Chamberlain, among these several hundred Americans who have filed their requests for the Ambassador's Houghton.

Each court is usually attended by approximately 1,500 persons, but for the first court alone in May there is nearly double that number, desiring to mark their bow before Their Majesties. There is such an enormous supplementary list for the other courts as well that the Lord Chamberlain has decided that some sort of a "gamble" be resorted to for the final selections.

Although the government decided against a tax on betting, at least for the current year, Chancellor of the Exchequer Chamberlain has also allowed the tax to drop, and has, with the aid of a commission, been making further exhaustive investigations.

As a result, a memorandum dealing with all the aspects and possibilities of such a tax has been presented to the cabinet for consideration.

It is estimated that a betting tax might easily produce £10,000,000 yearly, and the Chancellor in a speech to introduce the tax next year.

It is understood that Premier Baldwin and the other ministers are yet to be converted to the idea of such a tax, which might offend the moral feelings of the country. Mr. Chamberlain, however, may attempt to introduce the tax next year.

England has been banking in pessimistic Springtime weather, which is most welcome to all sports enthusiasts and the Oxford and Cambridge crews have been practicing on the Thames for their annual race.

The race is still a month ahead, so it is too early for any useful comparison between the two crews before they meet the heaviest

School Ventilation Still Beats Against A Stone Wall And is Clamoring For Relief

Remark that occasionally the efforts at reform proceed in directions that prove to be unavailing. In such instances a reversal of the adopted plans becomes doubly difficult.

"In an earlier generation," he says, "carbon dioxide, the waste product in the respiratory cases, was believed to be noxious if present in too large quantities in the atmosphere. It was because of this attention was directed to alleged organic poisons—exhaled and emanating from the human body as the harmful ingredients in a vitiated atmosphere.

Downside, scientific opinions regarding the fundamentals of ventilation has been entirely reversed. The modern theory has become info-voic.

RESPONSIBILITY FOR EVERYONE

Most of us are motorists, all of us are pedestrians some of the time. Let us all lend an extra effort to teach each class that the other class has its rights.

Traffic safety is the responsibility of the motorist, the pedestrian, the railway operator, the electric trolley motorman, the manufacturer of the car, the dealer who sells it and those who make and administer the laws.

It is our belief that a great combination of unselfish effort is bound to develop immeasurable results in the near future but in the meantime and after headway has been made, carry liability insurance.

Our organization desires to do its part in helping to teach traffic safety, in helping to teach the necessity of liability insurance, but its business is writing insurance and it is at this point that concentrated effort is made. It offers an insurance service that is backed by years of experience expert and comprehensive with an unusual department in its resident adjustment.
