Radio Reception Conditions Good Friday protests dominated the air last evening. None was in great abundance, and reception as a whole was unsatisfactory for those who desire powerful reception.

WJZ, WGY, WGR and KDKA were excellent. WJZ at New York came in with practically no disturbances and provided loud speaker reception without a trace of static. Conditions were about the same as those experienced the night before, although the static slightly stronger.

STOCK PRICES HEAVY AGAIN

NEW YORK, Apr. 3.—(AP)—Stock prices turned sharply lower today as a week-end rally which appeared on the market in large volume. While there was no resumption of the urgent liquidation which crushed the market early in the week, stocks of all descriptions eased off gradually after an early period of strength. Favorable references were drawn from Federal Reserve figures showing a large reduction in brokerage loans, reports of new oil mergers and the resumption of equipment buying by the railroads in a large scale, but the buying movement by standard trails and industries was checked when selling pressure was re-directed against the motor, merchandising and food shares.

Stock prices pointed upward at the opening of today's market. Buying of the oils was stimulated by reports of merger negotiations between the Texas Company and the California Petroleum Company, but the initial sales were largely fractional. Chrysler and Baldwin jumped 1-4 and 1-2 points respectively. Renewed selling pressure checked the merchandising and motor shares quickly checked the upward movement. Woolworth fell four points, Hudson Motor fell back two and S. S. Kresge, General Motors, Stewart Warner, Peabody, Allied Chemical, H. H. Macy and St. Louis Southwestern sold a point or more. California Petroleum extended its gain to two points and Pan American, Houston, Texas Company, Marine preferred, Iggett and Myers B and American Locomotive sold a point or two. Over the holiday news was largely bullish in character, the chief item being the announcement by the Federal Reserve Bank that $100,000,000 in new currency will be nearly $150,000,000 from their high level of the year. Trading in the foreign exchange market quiet, due to the holiday in most of the European and South American capitals, and quotations were largely nominal. Demand steady, interest rates steady, and French francs around 3.45 cents.

STATE DEPARTMENT OF FARMS AND MARKETS

NEW YORK, Apr. 3.—(AP)—Although Florida market had little weight the demand was not so heavy as last week. The supply, and consequently the price, fell lower, with the market closing at 40 cents containing six to eight cents for the lower quality. Florida has marketed 27,474 cases of oranges, a decrease of 2,104 cases from the movement for the same period last season. Bunched red tip radishes from South Carolina were in more plentiful supply and due to the slight variation in the condition as well as quality prices ranged from $2.00 to $2.50. The fanciest offerings reached $4.00 per bushel hamper, while ordinary jobs sold at $2.00 to $2.50. Little activity prevailed on the market for cabbage. Artichokes were relatively limited but traded at one and one-half bushel hamper and Dutch variety changed hands from $2.25 to $2.75 per bushel and due to the low price per bushel upon the state and quality. Last week the country's supply of artichokes was estimated to total 1,208 cars as against 42 cars of the same crop. The season's initial carload of Louisiana artichokes was received on the local market this morning. The fruit arrived in good condition but lacked color and therefore met a limited outlet. Pint baskets peddled out for $4.00 to $4.40; cows $2.75 to $4.00. CALVES—Receipts 10,000; steady; prices unchanged. HOGS—Receipts 2,400; slow and steady; prices unchanged. $11.00-11.25; yorkers $11.75-12.00; rough $10.75-11.25; sows $12.00-12.50. SHEEP AND LAMBS—Receipts 300; steady and slow; prices unchanged. NEW YORK CATTLE MARKET. NEW YORK, Apr. 3.—(AP)—Cattle, receipts 452; steady. Steers $9.00-11.25; cows $8.00-10.00. CALVES—Receipts 10,000; steady; prices unchanged. $11.00-11.25; yorkers $11.75-12.00; rough $10.75-11.25; sows $12.00-12.50. SHEEP AND LAMBS—Receipts 300; steady and slow; prices unchanged.

Financial & Industrial

NEW YORK, Apr. 3.—(AP)—New York members of the liquidation in the stock market, which has been continuing to new low levels for the year, was in striking contrast this week to recent breaking first quarter reports in several lines of industry.

The reaction in stock prices, which had been under way for three successive weeks had advanced in extent, every other decline in the stock market history for a year, many of them to 100 points below the high levels established one week before. It was followed by a sharp recovery on Wednesday which continued with some irregularity through the next day. Apparently the reaction, like the long recovery which preceded it, had been overdone. Whether steel concern was being hammered down to a new low for the year at 117 1/2, or the fact that the corporation was operating practically at capacity, later in the week, the steel industry showed no widespread cancellation of orders, but the sharp rise in the price of steel, which had been in the moment, bar traders were making a furious selling attack on the railroad equipment market, which had been in a state of depression since the Pennsylvania railroad had ordered 175 mountain type locomotives from the Pullman Company, and 25 engines from the Erie Railroad. The number of freight cars in the yard at class roads on March 31 was 1,454, as compared with 2,082 on the same date last year, and 45,741 in 1924. The number of the copper shares was checked off by the American Brass Company, which had been a heavy consumer, had broken all record shipments in the first quarter. Motors were selling 20 to 60 per cent below their 1925 level, but before the publication of unreported quarterly earnings reports, which were generally expected to be disappointing, a "bull" movement turned weak week after week. In the last few days, however, reports by the big companies, Oil, steel, and other industries, although not accompanied by the usual announcement of price increases, had offered the previously held shares of the industry, and several sections of the country, which had been in a state of depression, were beginning to show signs of recovery. Some lines of business have been falling off, but the opinion that the break in the market was temporary and any general and serious depression "bull" movement turned weak week after week. In the last few days, however, reports by the big companies, Oil, steel, and other industries, although not accompanied by the usual announcement of price increases, had offered the previously held shares of the industry, and several sections of the country, which had been in a state of depression, were beginning to show signs of recovery.

BATH ROTARY CLUB MEETING

Guy Cheney, District Attorney of Steuben, Gives Address to Members

BATH, Apr. 2.—The speaker at the weekly luncheon of the Bath Rotary Club yesterday was Guy Cheney, of Corning. Steuben county district attorney, and a member of the Corning Rotary Club, Mr. Cheney, who was introduced by Edwin C. Smith, a Bath Rotarian, spoke most interestingly on the alarming growth in the crime wave of this country. He stated that one of the major American cities in a few months last year, recorded a greater number of homicides than was witnessed during the entire year in certain European countries. Mr. Cheney discussed errors in the present penal laws, governing the possession and use of firearms, and urged a more drastic system of laws, and a more rigid enforcement if there is to be any lessening in the appalling number of homicides.

OFFICIAL VISIT TO BE MADE TO REBEKAH LODGES

BATH, Apr. 2.—Mrs. Frances Havens of Canastota, president of the Bath State Assembly, daughter of Reheka, will visit the Bath Chapter, next Wednesday evening, the occasion being her official visit to the chapters in this district. The meeting will be held at the Odd Fellows' Temple in this village and about 250 members from the district chapters are expected. The Woman's Club degree team will give an amplification of degree work.

Vicinity Deaths

William Kress. ADDISON, Apr. 2.—The death of William Kress occurred at his home on Franklin street, Thursday evening following a year's illness. Mr. Kress was born in Addison in 1860, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Grandin Kress, and lived practically all his life here, except for a short time spent in Buffalo and in the service of the United States Army. He was a valued employee of the Park, Winton & Tracy factory here for over 30 years. On September 21, 1925, he married Miss Josephine Tremain of Covadonga, Pa.

Mr. Kress was an ambitious and respected citizen, kindhearted and courteous. For several years he had cared for two of his sister's children, Josephine and Noel Tremain. His wife died about a year ago. He was a member of the Methodist church and of the local Lodge of Odd Fellows. He is survived by four brothers, Herman and Charles of Addison, Bert of Newark and Frank of Elmira.

Miss Alice Sutton

CAMERON MILLS, N. Y., Apr. 2.—Miss Alice Sutton died at Cleveland, Ohio, March 29, and the funeral was held at Albany April 1. Miss Sutton was a daughter of Mrs. Sutton, who lived on the farm now owned by W. J. Walton and a cousin of Mrs. Billy Jerry and Mrs. Lillie Gardner.

MANSLAUGHTER, FIRST FLAHERTY CASE VERDICT

GENEVA, Apr. 2.—(AP)—The jury in the trial of Charles Flaherty for manslaughter, first degree, returned at 11:50 o'clock last night with a verdict of guilty. Sentence will be made on April 5. The case went to the jury at 4:20 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Richard Wheelock of Custerville and Mrs. Ella Hagan, mother of the dead girl, were the feature witnesses. Wheelock proved to be the surprise witness of the trial, his affidavit produced him to show that he was present in the Flaherty home when Clara Hagan took her alleged departure for Buffalo.

STORY OF SCARLET FEVER GERM DISCOVERY AND CURE BROUGHT OUT BY PHYSICIANS

ALBANY, Apr. 2.—(AP) If the Nobel prize in medicine had been given to the discoverer of the germ of scarlet fever, it would have gone to Dr. George Dick, of Chicago, who, assisted by his wife, Dr. Gladys H. Dick, discovered the germ of scarlet fever and developed a cure. At least that was the opinion of a group of American physicians who met in Albany last night to discuss the germ. They discussed the germ of scarlet fever, which is a bacillus, and how it is transmitted. They also discussed the cure, which is a serum, and how it is prepared. The germ was discovered in 1900, and the cure was developed in 1901. Dr. Dick's discovery was a great triumph for medicine, and it has saved many lives since that time.

As a result of the Dick's work, Dr. William H. Park, director of the vaccine laboratory of the city of New York, was able to tell the physicians attending a joint meeting of bacteriologists and pathologists here that in his city of 6,000,000 people he expected only about 75 deaths from scarlet fever to be recorded this year. The discovery of the Dicks had virtually conquered the disease in the two years.

OLEAN PEOPLE ESCAPE DUCKING IN CANISTEO

HORNELL, Apr. 2.—Mr. and Mrs. John Rogers of Olean escaped a ducking in the Canistota river Friday by a close margin. They were on their way to Bigdampton to visit relatives when the car hit a rough spot in the road and began to skid. The machine turned completely around and backed through a hole in the highway fence down a short embankment and into the river. Mr. Rogers managed to stop the car just before the water came up over the front seat.

BACKFIRE OF AUTO CAUSES LOCKPORT FIRE

LOCKPORT, Apr. 2.—(AP) The backfiring of an automobile late last night caused an $8,000 loss by the destruction of 22 records and the destruction of 22 records and the destruction of 22 records. The fire started in a frame building located on Summit street.

PONTIAC SIX Captures Corning At the New York Automobile Show—a spectacular triumph! Wherever it has since been presented—a brilliant success! Here in town, a conquest of public opinion which excited interest to fever heat. Three years ago General Motors determined to develop a Six, so high in quality and low in price, as to win instant public acceptance. To that end were devoted the almost limitless resources of the corporation. As a result, the Pontiac Six introduces into the field of low-priced sixes, features so new and unique, that a radical revision of the national idea on motor cars values is already under way. Sensible investors, the country over, are turning to a Six that offers beauty, bigness, comfort, stamina, quality and thrilling big-engine performance, for only $825—less than the cost of some four-cylinder cars. And there can be but one result— not enough cars to go around. Arrange to place your order now. Assure yourself of getting delivery when you are ready to take it. Hundreds are going to wait. So wait this spring. Now is the time for you to act! Oakland Six, Competition for Pontiac Six, $1025 to $1295. All prices are factory. BODIES BY FISHER

The Associated Press is a general publication of all news disseminated for the benefit of the public. It is not a news agency and does not disseminate news.

From the Book
"Follow after right, for the sake of a multitude to do evil."

PRAYER—O God, to stand with Thee, for the right which I need.

Palms and Thorns
The Christian world celebrates Palm Sunday in the most beautiful of one great occasion on which Jesus of Nazareth participated in piece of spectacularism.

Yet the thorn was only a few days away
That is life. The palms and thorns are never far apart.

Earth's heroes are generally short lived. It is but a day from the time the mother croons her baby to sleep until she befalls the widow peering down the dark street for the first sight of the returning prodigal.

Poverty lurks just around the corner from prosperity; disease and death are held at bay by the slenderest of threads.

He who expects life to be one uninterrupted succession of victories and rewards is apt to be cynical when he discovers that life is a struggle of thorns as well as palm branches.

But thorns usually teach us more than palm branches do. The average man, if he is wise, learns more from his defeats than from his successes.

He is realistic, therefore, he asks no more progress. Enjoy your palms while you have them. Do not discount or disdain them. They strengthen the soul for the day of the thorns.

Disarmament Yet Expected
Not much is expected, either in Europe or America, of the preliminary disarmament conference scheduled for Geneva in May.

The recent deadlock of the nations at Geneva over the admission of Germany to the League of Nations, with the bitterness and fears thereby engendered, make it unlikely that much can be done at present.

The powers will therefore make no disarmament until they feel safe, and just now they feel far from safe.

Science does not necessarily mean that nothing will be accomplished when the main conference assemblies months hence. The situation may change during the summer.

The statements who failed to arrive at Geneva early in March have been hearing what the people think of them. The nations making most of the trouble have been hearing what the rest of the world thinks of them.

World opinion generally demands harmony and peaceful cooperation among the nations rather than scheming politics and war preparations. And the world public will have its way, compelling the members of the League

LENTEN MEDITATION

SAT., APR. 3—The Burial of Our Hope, Jan. 19:31-42. Text: 19:43.

In the garden a new tomb wherein was never man yet laid. There... they laid Jesus.

Meditation—They had thrilled with the hope "that it should be he who should redeem Israel." But he was dead, there was nothing left but the lifeless body of the leader of the lost cause.

KANTER DAY—Seeing the Risen Lord, Read in 29: 1-10. Text: 29:18. I have seen the Lord.

Meditation—When we have experienced the presence and power of the risen Lord to cleanse us from some clutching sin, or to make a weak will strong or inferior abilities adequate we have tried us by seen with experience and know he is risen indeed.

Prayer—O Thou that turnest the shadow of death into morning on this day of our hearts. We conspire to make us sure of Thee the gracious assurance, the stir of prayer, the morning and evening of the birds; but greater far, a secret thrill runs through the air from far off days.

Science and Immortality
Immortality is not a religious doctrine. It is a great human interest, in which science and religion have sought to solve.

There is one philosophy current that is now the mighty bait of the type of spouting men who would to treat out John Deiner's and the Kulk-erbocker bar. It is a worthy crew—race track followers, expert gamblers and promoters.

There is an air of mystery about their mighty conference that blends with the Oriental atmosphere. Sometimes they sit for an hour without saying a word. When they talk it is in monosyllables. Yet they remain usually unshaken.

Whiskers threaten a comeback. Several young men who are usually two jumps ahead of style are wearing goatees and London is sending many Englishmen who are going in for Durdreary. Side whiskers; flanking a clean shaven chin, will be the style if the style makes headway.

New York, Apr. 2.—One of the biggest spenders on Broadway is a CHINESE. He is the owner of a big chop suey place.

His sudden wealth is indicative of the popularity of Chinese food in New York this winter.

His sudden wealth is indicative of the popularity of Chinese food in New York this winter. There are now fourteen elaborate places on and near Broadway.

Still their prices are just as high as those of the American and French places. The average rub of Chinese cafes has caused a great financial loss to Chinatown.

LOVE ? ? ? ? ?

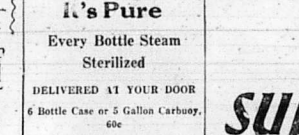

HER SISTER YEARNS

I almost let a foolish little thing trick me of real married happiness, but I had my eyes opened by a domestic tragedy in another home.

My husband always called me "the woman" when speaking of me to someone who did not know me given name. To me this seemed course and common, and when coupled with other little mannerisms that polished society people do not have, it worried me.

Finally a new family moved to the adjoining farm and the wife had such a wonderful story to tell.

HER FOLKS AND HE

He married her 'cause she was my 'an' some.

Property left from 'er husband's income; But both of the families was awfully stirred.

An' said the worst thing 'at the town ever heard. In her folks an' his'n. Er his'n an' her'n.

Never spoke to each other From what I can learn.

His folks began it an' jest said 'at she Was the worst actin' thing they ever did see.

An' ought to be 'shamed fer bein' so bold. 'Cause her husband he hadn't had time to get cold.

In her folks an' his'n. Er his'n an' her'n. Never spoke to each other From what I can learn.

His folks began it an' jest said 'at she Was the worst actin' thing they ever did see.

An' 't wasn't for her—well, he'd have to saw wood. This all of her kin, every blessed relation.

Said she'd lowered herself in their estimation. Er her folks an' his'n. Er his'n an' her'n.

Never spoke to each other From what I can learn. The sisters they told—this is When you and I—As they thought she wanted her husband to die.

An' they whispered around—but don't let us word—each other. The awfullest things that a soul ever heard.

Er her folks an' his'n. Er his'n an' her'n. Never spoke to each other From what I can learn.

Floyd L. Goodrich, for the past 14 years a druggist at the market street store of the Terbell-Calkins Drug Company...

Mr. Goodrich had been in Pennsylvania where he was born 38 years ago. He had lived in Corning for a great many years and was known as one of the prominent young business men.

Mr. Goodrich had been in the employ of the Terbell-Calkins Drug Company for the past 14 years, the first three of which were spent as assistant manager of the store located at Bridge and Pulney streets.

Mr. Goodrich was taken ill and for two weeks was confined to Corning Hospital in hopes that treatment would restore him. His condition was such, however, that it was necessary to remove him to Packer street, where his condition was such that he was forced to undergo several operations...

Mr. Goodrich was an able and most likeable young man who had a personality that attracted friendship and his jovial manner made him a favorite among his associates...

DR. W. E. GORTON, THE CITY'S FIRST MAYOR, RECALLS HIS EXPERIENCES

Yesterday 40th Anniversary of First Election of First Administration; Started the City Hall

Corning is to be congratulated that yesterday upon the 40th anniversary of its first election of city officials, it could count among its citizens, Dr. William E. Gorton, the first mayor of this city.

When interviewed yesterday, Dr. Gorton recalled some incidents connected with his official service to the city, recalling with a smile the first meeting of the council, the "little car" because of the strict discipline he maintained and the methods he employed in running the city affairs.

Probably no mayor since the city was founded has ever faced such responsibilities as met Dr. Gorton when he assumed the office of Mayor of the City of Corning.

The entire city government had to be reorganized. There were no precedents to follow, except in those emergency that arose. All conditions that were peculiar to this city had to be met.

When he was asked how he managed to accomplish this, he said that one of the reasons was that he appointed the head of the police business in the city on the spot.

"The law and other people," he continued, "who had been my main opponents, were not during Dr. Gorton's administration included the installation of a new and better lighting system."

In speaking of his police force, he said that he had only words of commendation for the chief of police, Chief James Ryan, who resigned from the police department a few years ago and is now in the employ of the Corning office at the completion of his term but refused to accept the position.

Dr. Gorton was asked to return to the office at the completion of his term but refused to accept the position. He must devote all his time to the business interests which had been neglected somewhat during his administration.

EASTER PROGRAMS ARRANGED IN CHURCHES ARE TO SURPASS THOSE OF FORMER YEARS

Oratorios, cantatas and anthems, rich in harmony and beautiful in tone qualities will be heard at the impressive musical services in the city's churches on Easter Sunday, when the people will gather in worship to commemorate the Resurrection of the Saviour of mankind.

The services this year will be even more beautiful than those of former years according to the programs. Musical directors have been working earnestly during the past few weeks in preparation for the Easter service, the most full of any in the church calendar. The programs will feature solo, quartet, duet and chorus work, interspersed with instrumental solo work. Music lovers in this city will be given the rare opportunity of hearing varied programs, because each church in the city will have something different to offer in musical lines.

The week beginning with Easter Sunday will not be an busy one in religious circles. On Thursday evening at First Baptist Church, the Royal Welch Singers will appear in concert.

At the First Presbyterian Church, two important meetings are planned, the first of which will be the monthly meeting of the Nichols Bible Class Monday evening and the second, the meeting of the Presbyterian Guild Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock.

Your Sunday School Lesson

Jesus Appears to His Disciples Text—John 20:24-29; 21:1-23.

GOLDEN TEXT—Because thou hast seen me, thou hast believed; blessed are they that have not seen me, and yet have believed.—John 20:29.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Thomas Hazy to See Jesus Alive Again. JUNIOR TOPIC—Jesus Appears to His Disciples. INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Jesus Appears to His Disciples.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Loving and Serving the Lord.

1. JESUS Manifests Himself to the Disciples—Thomas Present (20:24-29).

Thomas was absent at the first appearance of Jesus—just why we never know. His absence was a vision of the Lord. The other disciples went to Thomas with the glad news that Jesus had risen again. He said, "I do not believe, unless I see the prints of the nails, and thrust my hand into his side, he will believe." (v. 25)

1. The Lord's kindness to those who are his disciples (v. 26, 27). Thomas deserved rebuke, but the Lord kindly supplied the evidence which he demanded. The Lord revealed Himself to Thomas.

When He thus revealed Himself, Thomas was transformed and cried out, "My Lord and my God."

The superior blessing of being without sight (v. 29).

At Peter's suggestion the disciples go fishing. They do not go back to their calling with the Lord in Christ. They should not be accused of forsaking their Lord, but now the Lord holds it up before them. It is not the Lord's desire the cross, but Peter's own. Whatever may be before, we are directed to follow Him.

NICHOLS BIBLE CLASS TO MEET MONDAY EVENING

MEEKER BUSINESS INSTITUTE WILL MAKE STRONG SHOWING IN THE AMERICAN LEAGUE CONTEST

NEW YORK, Apr. 3.—(AP)—The New York Yankees who played last year at an American League pennant contender to a second division outfit have apparently come back with a reconstituted lineup of greater batting and running potential than any club in the major leagues...

Critics in the southland claim their recent burst of terrific hitting is the return to normal of veteran pitchers and a general improvement in club morale...

Strengthened by the inclusion of Mark Koenig and Tony Lazzeri, in the infield, the team of Miller Huggins has been regarded as a powerful attack, which, observers say, threatens to establish new records for extra base hits...

In spite of assertions that the "Jack Rabbit" has been disposed of, the Brooklyn Robins, straight hitters were rolled up by the decisive triumph of the Yankees yesterday over the Dodgers...

Critics consider the club stronger defensively this year, not only through the new Yankees combination of Koenig and Lazzeri in the infield, but due to great measure to improved farm players to open the season...

COLORADO HAS QUEER STATUS AS DRY STATE

Mark Sullivan, Investigating Prohibition Issue Find: an Odd Example

By MARK SULLIVAN
 Editorial Comment on the "Colorado, Colorado" Column, April 2.—Colorado and Memphis was in a ferment of discussion as yet mild hot growing, about the features made in Washington and the east toward modifying the Volstead act. News of the polls being made by newspapers throughout the country are wired here, and the speech in Congress about prohibition is printed in many of the western newspapers with greater display than any other subject of congressional legislation or national politics. Nevertheless, the quality of persons who understand the terms of actual cases reveals that in Colorado and the west the "dry" campaign is a large and it is in comfortable condition.

Competent judges say that no man could be elected to the U. S. Senate who had taken a position upon prohibition disapproved by the "drys." This also applies to practically every state, that of the forty-four senators from west of the Mississippi. The only possibility of change in this they would then in the convention of the "drys" men to the completion of this time would actually be drier men and the prohibitionists of the U. S. Senate act then under the present status. In Colorado there is some support for this theory and for a definite reason. Colorado just before the prohibition amendment was a dry state, but this old Colorado law provided that any citizen could become a "wet" and make such that his health required liquor. No action by a physician was required. The individuals with such a certificate could go to the county clerk, issued a permit under which the citizen could order from outside the state and have shipped to his mail address two quarts of whiskey and fifty dollars worth of wine, or twenty-four quarts of beer each month under this law about one hundred and fifty thousand citizens of Colorado cut out one hundred thousand took the oath.

This comprises one of the most interesting and valuable bits of statistics in the whole field of prohibition. It seems to give a line which in this state is about one in six who want liquor. It suggests the cause of the minority which regards itself as deprived of a legitimate right which it wants to exercise, by the will of the majority as expressed in the present status of prohibition. Some citizens of Colorado do have nothing to do with the liquor business, who do not want liquor in the state and who do not care for the privilege of buying liquor themselves—some citizens that is to say, who are essentially dry. Now look back on the conditions under this local Colorado law of nine years ago, compare them with the conditions today and assert that the former were better. They claim that less liquor was sold and consumed in Colorado under this old law than is now being brought in by bootleggers. The statistics are not verifiable by statistics, by surveying the situation for its bearing on the question of modification of prohibition by Congress or otherwise, the facts are that Colorado has the greater part of the west is thoroughly committed to the dry principle, that generally speaking only "drys" will represent the west in congress, and that the dry majorities in the territory will only give consideration to modification from the point of view of more successful driers. Colorado for example is in such respect the drier state in the Union. It is the only state having a law making it a criminal to sell for making intoxicating beverages. During twenty years the "drys" have won with every state except one. During the period the most predicted location prevailed more than ninety per cent of the states, they and more than sixty per cent of the population was "dry."

What's Odd, Interesting and New in Europe
 (By The Associated Press)

Fifty to sixty thousand American students are coming to Europe this spring and summer, according to forecasts made by the Paris office of the United States White Star, Cunard, French United American and North German Lloyd steamship lines.

All these companies plan to convert their regular third class accommodations into special fourth third cabin services as they did last year. The United States Line has even provided a special third class dance floor in the reconditioned steamer Republic, and six college orchestras, two from Princeton and one each from Harvard, Yale, New York University and the University of Pennsylvania, will furnish jazz for the liners.

The Cunard Line announces that its Havre service will be available to tourist students from the sailing of the Strathmore, May 1. The White Star Line reports that nearly all its tourist class accommodations have already been reserved.

Benefits of French railways last year totalled $125,000,000.

Do away with vibration—cut friction to a fraction—abolish carbon troubles and valve grinding—and you add years to the life of your car.

In the poppet-valve engine car, it is the pounding of cams against push-rods, the contact of push-rods on rocker-arms, the recoil of valves under coiled springs that cause vibration.

In the sleeve-valve engine Willys-Knight there is no pounding of metal upon metal. The right engine is simplicity itself. It consists of but two metal sleeves operating with a gliding motion. No vibration. No friction. Simply two single sleeves working smoothly, silently, up and down, one within the other, in a constant film of oil—end of it!

Carbon, too, shortens the life of the poppet-valve engine. The only remedy is valve-grinding. And this assembling-and-tearing-down process weakens the engine every time it is performed.

Carbon troubles cannot exist—there is no valve-grinding—with the sleeve-valve engine Willys-Knight. The unique principle of this patented engine provides that carbon only serves to seal compression and prevent power-waste. Instead of weakening, it literally gives this car added years of life and usefulness. Instead of harming, as it does all other engines, it actually helps the Knight engine to perform!

What's Old, Interesting and New in Europe

PARIS, April 3.—(AP)—A crusade to introduce fasting as a cure for most human ills, being preached in Paris by Dr. Ljoviska, and supported by six prominent physicians, has caused Parisians to ask if fasting is to deprive life of its last pleasures.

"Life is not so easy," remarked one commentator. "It will hardly be worth living if science is going to deprive us of its last pleasures. Love is full of distress; success never satisfies ambition, and fortune brings a crushing load of taxation. Nothing is left but the table and friends, that is food friends around a good dish washed down by a good bottle. Are we to invite our friends to a fast?"

Madame Lipniska, the doctor heading the crusade, is preaching the marvelous effect of a fortnight's fasting on the intelligence, the memory, the imagination, the will, and even the physical beauty in the disappearance of wrinkles, clearance of complexion, suppleness of the body, etc.

The doctor herself is a wonderful example of will power. Blind for many years, she has refused to allow the loss of sight to interfere with her studies, research work and travel.

French confettions have arrived earlier than the calendar, and earnestly hope the League of Nations means it so that Easter Sunday never falls so near the first of April as this year.

Easter Sunday is marked in France by presents of chocolate eggs, while chocolate fish are the traditional gifts for April Fools' Day. The candy sellers find that when these days occur in the same week their sales diminish seriously.

Changed conditions in the Latin quarter increased cost of board and lodgings, have produced a French counterpart to the American university student working his way through college. Heretofore work has never been popular with the French undergraduate, but French students now are being convinced by newspaper advertisements like the following:

"The 'frotteur,' or floor polisher in Paris, acts his work done early between five and seven in the morning.

Owing to the depreciation of the franc, a record impounding of American professors and teachers is predicted to Paris this summer by Dr. Horatio S. Krans, secretary and assistant director of the continental division of the American University Union in Europe.

Last summer's influx of professors who studied in France during the summer vacation will be far exceeded, Dr. Krans believes. Records of the University Union show that against 1,322 Americans students here in 1922-23 there were 2,739 between 1924 and 1925. Of these 42 were candidates for the degree of doctorate at the University of Paris.

Paris expects a lively session of the Women's International Suffrage Alliance when it meets here for its tenth world congress, May 20 to June 6, with French women workers zealously demanding equal voting rights with English women.

It is indicated that women of forty-three nationalities will take part. The United States delegates, headed by Miss Anne M. Morgan, are expected to advocate the absolute equality of men and women in all spheres of the alliance.

Mrs. Ernest Ashby, president of the International Suffrage Alliance, who will preside, is a leader in the English ranks of equal franchise rights. At present the English women can vote only after the age of thirty, although the suffrage voted out for men is equally early at the age of twenty.

The last day of the congress will set aside for a peace demonstration at which Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, until 1923 president of the alliance, will preside.

Ida Bostelman Winning High Honors in Musical World in New York; Warmly Commended

Ida Bostelman, daughter of former City Judge John C. Bostelman, whose first husband was Corning father, is winning more and more laurels by her musical ability both as a pianist and interpreter of music.

"An interview in New York paper gives an excellent picture of her ability under the heading, 'Ida Bostelman Wins High Honors in Musical World in New York; Warmly Commended.'

An example of her later ventures was recently heard, sung by Caroline Christian in concert at Steinway Hall, in a beautiful and sweet setting to Shello's poem: 'When soft winds and sunny skies With the green earth harmonize. And the young and drowsy dawn, Hold as an undulant fan, Up to the window heaven is gone. Leagues—far, unbroken in the day, Clouds and whirlwinds watch their prey.'

In her symbolic treatment of this haunting fragment is found much of that melancholy, vaguely fatalistic quality which characterizes Ida Bostelman and which has been so cleverly shown in a portrait of her which was painted recently by Truman Edward Fassett, her brother-in-law.

And she has—Schirmer has published many of her compositions for the piano, violin and voice. Notable among the latter are "Sally Brown" sung by Maud Garrison of the Metropolitan and by Francis Rogers, "Love Goes as the Wind Blows" sung by Edgard Burke, and "Miss Mary Comes Into My Garden."

Of course, Miss Bostelman has heard the luring call of Broadway and has longed to symphonize long enough anyway to make a few millions out of jazz and popular hits. In this connection she tells an amusing incident about an interview she had with Franz Schirmer when she was showing to her something which she herself hoped to be very "low brow" in style.

"These songs are beautiful," said the famous connoisseur, "they are classical music—but, somehow, I can't imagine any body whistling them down the street." She pursed up her lips and tried me. Then she shook her head and said in a changed voice, pleasant with its solemn mission of enlightenment: "You go some, my dear, and see if you can't write something like 'Gee, How I Love That Girl!'"

Nevertheless, upon her own adventure to Broadway this young composer—won high praise from the critics for her musical setting of the Easter vacation at the home of her parents, Rev. and Mrs. M. H. Stoddard.

No arrangements have been made for a meeting on April 13 by the executive committee this week and that it was not probable that a meeting would be held next week, included in the order, which was issued through the state headquarters of the Legion in the Hall of Records, New York City, by State Commander Harry C. Wilder, is a request for arrangements for radio reception. This would indicate that the purpose of calling together the Legion members and World War veterans will not be announced until the night of the meeting. Mr. Patton stated today that there was no intention in the order he received of what the Legion's purpose really is.

This is the first time in the history of the Legion in New York that all members and posts have been directed to meeting at the same time. About 65,000 men and women in 600 posts of this order are affected by the order.

No matter if skirts are short, they shouldn't be abandoned.

ORDER LEGION TO MOBILIZE

Mysterious Order Received for Rally on April 6 or 7; Plan Action Here

"Call to arms! Mobilize your post! Not for war but—"

This is headed a mysterious order for mobilization of the whole American Legion in New York state which has been sent to all members of the Legion. Officers of each post are requested to notify all World War veterans to rally at a convenient post on April 6 or April 7.

No arrangements have been made for a meeting on April 13 by the executive committee this week and that it was not probable that a meeting would be held next week, included in the order, which was issued through the state headquarters of the Legion in the Hall of Records, New York City, by State Commander Harry C. Wilder, is a request for arrangements for radio reception. This would indicate that the purpose of calling together the Legion members and World War veterans will not be announced until the night of the meeting. Mr. Patton stated today that there was no intention in the order he received of what the Legion's purpose really is.

No matter if skirts are short, they shouldn't be abandoned.

A FAIR BUSINESS WIND IS BLOWING NOW

Never in our twenty-five years of business, in this community, has the business wind been blowing as favorably as it is now.

Our present wave of good business is directly traceable to the confidence our many clients have in the "Ground Floor Agency."

Our knowledge, as has been shown, and to assure them that the same spirit and the same policies will continue through this motor season and through many more.

Those who are new to the community and those who have never known our service are invited to consult us about their auto insurance problems.

Driver Escapes injury when all steel car turns upside down

An icy pavement between Piqua and Dayton, Ohio... traffic complications... and the car shown above plunged through a wire fence and turned completely over.

"The driver" reads the report, "only found it necessary to operate the window crank in the left front door and crawl out. He had not received a scratch."

Lucky motorist to have been driving a Dodge Brothers all-steel car!

Imagine what would have happened, under similar circumstances, to a motor car with a body of wood—and to the driver!

Every automobile body—should now be all steel just as every sleeping car is now built of steel.

All steel bodies are safer. Anyone knows that, Steel doesn't splinter. Steel doesn't burn. Steel is tough and strong—the modern ship metal—the modern aeroplane metal—the modern bridge and building metal.

That's why Dodge Brothers built the first all steel touring car eleven years ago—the first all steel closed car four years ago—and this year pioneered

The car will continue to be a "four". Touring Car... $860.00 Coupe... $911.50 Roadster... $59.00 Sedan... $95.00
