WARSAW HAS A TELEGRAM AHEAD FOR UNEXPECTED RESULTS

PRESIDENT WOJCIECHOWSKI AND HIS CABINET SAID TO HAVE RESIGNED

(By The Associated Press) The military revolution in Poland appears to have succeeded. Marshal Pilsudski is not only in complete control of Warsaw but...

The fighting in Warsaw which began Wednesday afternoon, the despatch said, ended late yesterday afternoon with capture by the rebels of the Belvedere palace...

Some of the members of the cabinet were able to escape from the city, but President Wojciechowski was not. The marshal has repeatedly declared that his movement was not aimed at the president but at the Witosc cabinet.

The coup d'etat has been far from bloodless, according to all reports, but accounts of the number of casualties vary. Advises reaching Paris today were that 200 persons were killed in Warsaw during the fighting of Thursday and Friday.

Unaccounted Dead Hurled

WARSAW, Poland, May 14.—(AP)—The battle which cleared away the Warsaw cabinet and its supporters in mourning, buried the unaccounted dead who were various military revolts, in a great public funeral.

Several hundred wounded in the various hospitals swell the toll of casualties.

Mostly civilian relics over the city. All the public utilities are working normally, however, except the street cars, which are awaiting the repairing of the torn up streets.

Miss Helen Bridge, American in charge of the Warsaw Nursing School, is heretically directing the work of caring for the wounded.

President Resigns BERLIN, May 15.—(AP)—The Polish telegraph agency here announces that President Wojciechowski of Poland and his cabinet have resigned and that a new ministry is now being formed.

The situation in Poland arising from the military revolution headed by Marshal Joseph Pilsudski has been obscure, with conflicting reports from various sources, due to the strong censorship enforced in Warsaw. The following is the best account of the uprising as filed by the correspondent of The Associated Press at the Warsaw post office telegraph station at 6:30 o'clock last night.

Started from Clamping Flying Field Near Rome Amid Admiring Throngs

NEW YORK, May 15.—(AP)—The Norge's epoch-making transatlantic flight began on the morning of April 10. After hovering over the eternal city with admiring throngs below and a shifting sun above, it slipped high swung out across the Baltic of Europe. It bridges the English channel as it would river, dodged London, and appeared over the North Sea on April 11.

Near midnight of April 13, Commander Nobile ordered the Norge to land on the ice. The ice was thin and breaking, threatening to pass serenely over the ice on the North Sea, 1:25 p. m. April 14, 13 hours and 45 minutes after leaving Pullum.

The Norge took to the air again the morning of April 15. Battling the wind, it made its way to the north, 10 miles from the ice, and landed here at 11:30 a. m. The Norge was in the air for 19 hours and 15 minutes, covering a distance of 1,100 miles.

The dirigible did not linger long at the ice. It was in the air for 19 hours from Leningrad, and landed at 11:30 a. m. on the morning of April 16. The Norge was in the air for 19 hours and 15 minutes, covering a distance of 1,100 miles.

SPECIAL SERVICES MARK 100TH ANNIVERSARY OF FOUNDING OF BATH CHURCH

BATH, May 15.—Special services today and tomorrow mark the 100th anniversary of the founding of St. Thomas' Episcopal church of this village. Many former parishioners are present to join in the program, which will be followed by a program of address, Bishop David Peris of Rochester, being the principal speaker. Sunday morning Bishop Peris will read a extract of the Holy Eucharist at 3 o'clock. At the 10:30 o'clock service the bishop will administer the first Eucharist services in Bath.

During the two years following this first service in 1815, Father Hopkins repeated his visit here on several occasions, holding services in Bath, Pleasant Valley, Wayne, Angelica, Portage and many other places. From these services, Mrs. Townsend and her small family of Episcopalian grew into the nucleus of a parish, which was organized in 1826, and named St. Thomas.

The church was organized in 1826, and named St. Thomas. It served practically all of Steuben county. Its members may be found in all parts of the county. Mr. Townsend served actively in the church all during his life, serving as a teacher in the church school, and as a deacon. He died in the year of 1850 which was completed in 1870 at the age of 47.000. His dedication was in the year of 1870.

The parish was established in 1815, although services were held here by a missionary priest some 11 years prior, or about 1804. The first church, which was a wooden structure, stood at the southeast corner of Pulley Square. The edifice served until 1870, when the present beautiful stone structure at Washington square was made possible through an initial gift of $20,000 as a building fund from Henry W. Cook, then a prominent parishioner.

Elizabeth Hall Townsend is regarded as the founder of the Bath Episcopal parish. As a young woman she followed her husband into this then pioneer country. Her husband, Mr. Townsend had a large homestead a few miles north of the present village. Mrs. Townsend was a native of Connecticut and received her church training under Bishop Seabury, who founded a school for higher education of women at Troy, a school later made famous by Miss Willard. Mrs. Townsend settled near Bath in 1814. The nearest

Habit of Recreation Growing on Americans
One-sixth of the population of the United States and Canada last year attended sports contests under municipal sponsorship, while the number of participants increased to more than half a million.

The Playground and Recreation Association of America in its annual report given by The Associated Press cites these figures as evidence of the growing popularity of recreation. There was an expenditure of $13,816,145 for public play by cities in these countries.

Public golf, which five years ago was not important enough to list, is now played in 190 cities, and is now being played in 174 cities in 1925, an increase of $65 in 410 cities in 1924.

Electricity Wins Next Sea Battle

Some idea of the tremendous part electricity will play in the next war is probably true from the fact that if any one of the nine dreadnaughts in Uncle Sam's Battle Fleet should connect its electrical main to those in the city of Boston, it could supply the entire populace with the normal amount of current for light and heat.

RISKO GETS DRUBBED FROM STRIBLING IN 10 ROUND BOUT

NEW YORK, May 15.—(AP)—W. J. (Young) Stribling administered a drubbing last night to Johnny Risko, Cleveland heavy-weight, in a six-round boxing battle in Madison Square Garden.

Fifteen thousand fans saw the 21-year-old Georgian put on a point 1 1/2 pounds in weight, then cut loose with an attack that smothered and harassed the Clevelander almost from start to finish. Stribling's punches fought and outgeneraled Risko, had him groggy under smashing rights to the chin both the eighth and seventh rounds and, at the end, carried off the judges' decision by a decisive margin.

Stribling carried off seven of the 10 rounds in the opinion of the majority of critics and successful in wounding a desperate rival who was knocked by a series of punches to the ninth and tenth rounds.

It was one of the most convincing triumphs the sensational Georgian has scored in New York and boosted his stock in the market. Heavyweight title fight he is scheduled in June at the Stadium, back at the Yankee Stadium, June 10.

Round One—Stribling landed three long lefts to Risko's chin as he blocked the right hand. Stribling's right hand landed a left to the head but the blow was Risko's lead. Stribling stung Risko with a left hook to the jaw and they clinched. Stribling boomed for hitting low. The Georgian's shiftness had Johnny Risko on the ropes.

Round Two—Stribling landed both hands to the head and a sharp left to the chin. Another smacking left stung the Georgian as he came to his feet. Risko curled a long left to the head after a clinch but a left jab caught him in the ribs. Stribling seemed to prefer a long range attack and they were sparring at the bell.

Round Three—They failed away at each other, clinching in a wild swinging exchange. Stribling snuck his right into Risko's body and took a left jab to the jaw. Stribling was blocking his opponent's blows as they were sparring and employing his boxing skill effectively. Stribling scored lustily on the head and body.

Round Four—Risko landed into the attack but found himself

FLYING EBONY

"BLACK GOLD"

CLIFFORD COCHRAN
NEW YORK SPORTSMAN
WHOSE HORSE FLYING EBONY WON THE DERBY

KENTUCKY DERBY

It's safe to say that Clifford A. Cochran, whose horses won the Preakness and the Kentucky Derby last year, will win the annual Louisville $50,000 classic tomorrow. The Luck-Gold of the turf sapped both Coventry and Flying Ebony with his magic wand last year and brought them, both rank outsiders, home first, but by no stretch of the imagination can Flatiron, Balpalme, or Endless be rated the favorites for the race tomorrow. Probably they won't even start, although the first named beat the well-regarded Timmarra in one of his two races as a two-year-old.

But Mr. Cochran will not care—much. He will enjoy the race, recollecting how, in 1925, he entered Flying Ebony at the last moment to provide a mount for Earle Sanade, and how the "Horse with the look like the Eagles in his eyes" was right, and won a surprising victory. And Mr. Cochran will rest for some of his many friends who "Blissed Maria" almost kept him from seeing Black Gold win the 1924 Derby.

It all happened in this way: One of Mr. Cochran's horses had won a preliminary race at Louisville on Derby Day, 1924. The noted New York sportsman was surrounded near the club house by friends who offered congratulations on his victory. One friend offered something to have Mr. Cochran needed no further inducement. He reached for it—but a revenue agent grabbed it first, then grabbed him, and, in spite of all his pleadings, put him in a patrol wagon and sent him off to Louisville under police escort.

And Mr. Cochran had a horse running in the Derby within an hour!

A high official of the Jockey Club finally arranged, by telephone, to have Mr. Cochran released immediately. The famous ride of Paul Reverse was nothing compared to the noted sportsman's dash back to the race track and a win. He made it just in time to see the Derby run—and his own entry handsomely beaten. The name of his horse was Revenue Agent!

NORTHSIDE IS CORNING BEATS EASILY VICTOR ALFRED CLUB

Swamps Athens in Loosely Played Game by Score of 19 to Five

Yesterday afternoon, Northside High school baseball team defeated Alfred University tennis team on the Pine street courts yesterday in a hectic seven match tournament by the narrow margin of 6 matches to 3.

The Alfred team showed the result of their practice and every match developed into a battle of wits, as well as packets. The Corning team, handicapped by a lack of both indoor and outdoor facilities, was forced to the limit of its strength through victory.

Osborne and Lindley saved the tournament for Corning, with each team having a match to reduce the final doubles match, after each having previously won a single match.

Wu, a Chinese student, played a particularly steady, consistent game for Alfred. His hard, persistent returns and side shot single match with Nolan, who had backed Robert Lindley in the first set in his single match, to win their double match and tie up the tournament as three all, only to have Osborne and Lindley offset their good play by winning their double from Prentice and Ferris and thereby saving the match for Alfred.

Score—Singles: Nolan of Alfred, 6-3, 6-3.
Prentice of Alfred, won from Lobby of Corning, 6-4, 6-1.
Lindley of Corning won from Call of Alfred, 6-1, 3-6, 6-0.
Doubles: Nolan and Wu of Alfred won from Prentice and Ferris of Corning, 6-4, 1-6, 6-1.
Osborne and A. Lindley won from Ferris and Prentice of Alfred, 6-2, 6-3.

Alfred did not score again until the fifth set, N. H. S. did not score until the second set, N. H. S. scored three in two, 6-0, 6-0. The N. H. S. bases and with two out Osborn tripled into right field, clearing bases. McLaughlin struck twice in the sixth, two errors and a hit by Kelly.

In the fourth, N. H. S. added two more to their rapidly increasing total. Adams walked and gathered in two on base and with two out Ketchum hit, scoring two runs.

In the fifth both teams scored more than in any other inning. With hit out, McCabe of Athens was safe on McLaughlin's error. Page followed suit. Spaulding scored. McCabe, Hartel did likewise, scoring Page. Batter in for Adams, Faulstich hit. Adams and McLaughlin scored on Spaulding's error. Ketchum fled out to Wade.

Osborne walked leading the bases for the seventh time of the game. Kelly came through with a hit, scoring two and giving the following suit, scoring another. Adriance was out at first.

McCabe, who scored in the second and third innings, was out sixth but Athens got two more runs in their last time at bat due to errors and a hit by Kelly.

The lineup:

YANKEES WIN OVER CLEVELAND CRIPPLED GIANTS ARE OSERS

(By The Associated Press)
As Babe Ruth goes, so go the Yankees.

By word of the diamond which took root in the greatest home run record of all time has come back with emphasis this year to kindle the pennant hopes of Miller Huggins.

Ruth delivered one mighty thump yesterday. With that slugging blow, the Yankee won a victory over the Cleveland Indians, 5 to 1, and boosted their first place advantage over Washington to a full game. The drive scored in the right field bleachers for Babe's eleventh four base slam of the campaign, tying page he set in 1921, to compile his record string of 55.

Lou Gehrig was abashed when Ruth smote one of Levensen's twisters for the circuit in the opening batter. Thereafter only one additional bludge was gathered by the entire Yankee outfit.

The second place Senators made the verdict doubly pronounce to New York by dropping a decision to the St. Louis Browns, 10 to 7. Although hammered for fourteen hits by the champion, Gaston went the route for the Browns, who pumped four Washington pitchers in relation. Ken Williams, fifth homer of the season scored in a healthy Brown attack which temporary lifted St. Louis team out of a long slump.

The Philadelphia Athletics, who were crowding the Indians for fourth place as a result of their ninth inning rally to victory yesterday against the Chicago White Sox 6 to 5. After splitting a double play, the Athletics scored first two innings, the Marbach batter closed with a sacrifice fly in the seventh and ninth. Jim Haney's drive scoring Blalock won the winning run.

The Detroit Tigers added another round about over the Boston Red Sox 4 to 1, scoring six runs in the bottom of the contest. But the Clevelanders march on through the middle week was temporarily checked at Pittsburgh. The Pirates, who are national League leaders even to this, in a seven inning game ended by

NEW YORK SCHOOLS ARE FAVORITES IN PENN MEET

PHILADELPHIA, May 15.—Stevens-High Academy, Ureth and Stevens-High Schools of New York City, are favorites for the championship in the twenty-fourth annual meet of the Pennsylvania interscholastic track and field meet on Franklin Field this afternoon.

Twenty-nine schools, with all-around stars, took part in the first two sprints, the Marbach batter closed with a sacrifice fly in the seventh and ninth. Jim Haney's drive scoring Blalock won the winning run.

The Detroit Tigers added another round about over the Boston Red Sox 4 to 1, scoring six runs in the bottom of the contest. But the Clevelanders march on through the middle week was temporarily checked at Pittsburgh. The Pirates, who are national League leaders even to this, in a seven inning game ended by

STROKE SYSTEM IS STANDARD

Famous "Washington System" Originated by Man Who Never Pulled Oar

NEW YORK, May 15.—(Sp.—) Fully half of the college rowmen figuring in the spring's banner series of naval battles are employing a style of rowing created by a man who never pulled a competitive oar nor had any practical experience beforehand. The world of sport has known no stranger paradox than this product of the keen mind of the late Hiram Conibear, who, while track coach at the University of Washington, devoted his spare time to evolving with charts and diagrams a rowing system that has blazed a trail of victory on the Atlantic as well as the Pacific coast. Conibear did not live to see the seed he planted bear its richest fruit. It was simply the "Conibear stroke" when he died three years ago, transmitted by a rope in which he became entangled in a fall out of a tree. Today

PETEY—Imagine On A Day Like This

By C. A. Voigt

however, it is the "Washington system" for Conibear's principles have spread his teachings to six of the twelve major institutions fostering this picturesque sport; it has become the modern standard, an astonishing breeder of success, and given to America a home bred system of its own, where for decades the methods of the "old school" or English coaching prevailed. Conibear's system is simple. It is merely the application of greater "leg drive". His theory was that when the oars entered the water the legs should take over a big part of the propulsion instead of leaving it to arms and shoulders. His findings, scouted at first, were given tests that proved their soundness and Conibear later was appointed crew coach. It is the power of this new stroking that has carried Yale's varsity crews into a fourth straight season without defeat.

Do you know why BUICK 4-wheel brakes are mechanical

Buick 4-wheel brakes are built on the same sound mechanical principle as the two-wheel brakes you always have used.

The brake on the outside front wheel releases when turning a corner. The outside front wheel needs to turn in a larger circle to avoid skidding and Buick brakes let it turn.

And the operating parts of Buick brakes are steel drop forgings.

For safety's sake, and for easier driving, pick Buick and Buick mechanical 4-wheel brakes.

The Secret of this car's Amazing Performance

HERE IS a car of tremendous power . . . a car that will give you the thrilling performance of 55 miles an hour, whenever you want it.

That will pick up in high gear from 5 to 40 miles an hour in 21 seconds.

It is the only closed car that ever took the famous Sierra Grade, at San Jose, California, on high.

This is average performance of the Overland Six . . . in the hands of average owners . . . the kind you can expect when you drive this car.

Be prepared for a big surprise when you take your first ride in this powerful Six. A brand new kind of motoring experience awaits you . . . it's bound to change your whole idea of motor car values.

Full 40-horsepower is delivered in a straight line from its low swung engine through to the rear-axle shaft.

This big sturdy Six will out-pull, outrun and out-perform anything else of its size, or weight, or price-class.

It is a car of exceptional comfort. The big, broad doors are 32½ inches wide. You can get in or out with the utmost ease.

Seats are wide, luxuriously comfortable. There is more cubic feet of inside space than in any car of this price . . . with plenty of room for five full-size passengers. Room to stretch your legs without feeling cramped or crowded.

The rear springs are extra long . . . and underlugs. They are 52 inches long and are made of Chrome Vanadium Steel . . . a costly metal, but it's the best for absorbing the jolts and jars of the road.

Nothing has been spared to make this car a positive comfort-valuation. Owners accustomed to more expensive cars tell us this is true.

It is a strikingly beautiful automobile. Frankly we took the 18 best cars of America and Europe and combined their salient features in this new-type Overland Six.

In justice to yourself, see this car.

Institute

ELMIRA, N. Y., May 15, 1926.—
Mr. Emil Heilich and Mr. John
Simon, both of Elmira Heights,
N. Y., entered the Meeker Business Institute on Monday of this week in the Accounting Department.

Due to the fact that they have completed practically the first semester of the Meeker Course in Junior Accounting in connection with their High School work, these young men were eligible to be ready for a position in five or six months.

There is considerable advantage in entering at this season of the year especially for young people who have had commercial work in High School. They can continue their work at Meeker and in a very short time be ready for employment in the Meeker Employment Department, and accept a position.

POSITIONS
Nine calls have been received by the Meeker Employment Department during the past week.
Through this department Miss Erenea Gundersen, a student in the department, was offered the best replacement with a large wholesale firm in Elmira.

Miss Winifred Goss, who is about to graduate, has accepted a position with a large manufacturing company.
Mr. Elwyn Spoor has accepted a position with a large manufacturing company.

Mr. George Hayes has been referred to a position.

GRADUATES
Miss Ursula Davis of Maca-naw, Pa., has just received her work in the Junior Accounting Department and received her Certificate of Graduation and work.
She has already been referred to a position through the Meeker Employment Department. Mr.
Elwyn Spoor of Harbort, Pa., received his Certificate of Graduation
this week.

ASSEMBLY
At the Assembly last week, Mr.
H. H. Griswold, President of the Merchants National Bank of Elmira, N. Y., gave a most interesting talk to the student body. Mr.
and Mrs. Merritt E. Welch, prominent business men of Elmira, gave music, entertainment on the piano and violin respectively. The Meeker student body and management greatly appreciate the time and effort these people give for entertainment and education.

Martha Winters, a student at the Savoy High School commercial Department, was a guest of the Meeker Commercial Department at the assembly.

MR. JULIAN VAN DYKE
We were glad to notice that Mr.
Julian Van Dyke, who has been at the Southside High School, Elmira, N. Y., a former graduate of Meeker's, has been selected as a member of the city's new commission. Mr. Van Dyke has been Mayor of the High School, Mr. Van Dyke's High School work was not complete when he was a student at M. H. and after his graduation and a brief experience in business, he decided to further his education and now is attending Syracuse University to earn a degree in Business Degree. During the vacation, Mr. Van Dyke will take advantage of his business training in order to secure funds for his college course. The ambition of this young man has been displayed all through this period of his life is most commendable, and we are happy to know that the work he received at Meeker is going to be a benefit to him. We wish him the best of success. During Dory's week, Mr. Van Dyke was appointed City Judge. We are certain of his success.

DAD SAYS
"One of the greatest advantages of Business Education is found in the fact that it coordinates knowledge and the ability to use it.—And Dad Knows!
Meeker Courses are so planned
as to make possible this coordination. The student acquires the "whys and wherefores" of business, and at the same time, gets actual practice
in putting that knowledge to use.
This is the thing that brings about production which is valuable in business and commands a correspond-

Sandless Glass Now Made
With Success at Cornell

Scientists have been experimenting for some time in an effort to manufacture sandless glass. This has now been accomplished at Cornell University where sandless glass has been made in quantities
in the chemistry laboratory.
As the substitute for sand is mercuric iodide, a substance of mysterious and costly element, the invention in the manufacture of sandless glass works in a revolution in Corning Glass Works or in any other glass plant. The glass is made in a special furnace, and factured in ton lots.
The glass may become valuable in optical factories where small quantities of glass are manufactured.
Whether the new glass has properties that will make it of great value for optical work is still undetermined, but the results thus far obtained are indicative that it has unusual refractive qualities.
Scientists are still puzzled by mercuric iodide. They frankly admit that until it was put to work making glass they had not known what to do with it. Even now they are not sure of its exact nature,
but important uses in other sciences may well apply it. At present Professor Dennis is studying its compounds with a view to determining whether the element itself is a substance that will make it of inestimable value to the glass industry.
Mercuric iodide is extracted from crude zinc oxide. In crystalline form it is a gray, dark and extremely brittle. It is worth many times as much as the ordinary mercuric iodide. It is the most valuable of the rare elements, and is the largest mass of the element. It is a substance of great value, beautifully crystalline, and the piece of a silver dollar and weighing a few grams.
It has been learned that crude zinc oxide can be heated with strong acid under such conditions that a volatile compound of mercuric iodide is evolved, and decomposed by water so as to produce pure mercuric iodide, a substance of great value. The

MISS RUTH GARTY IS FATALY INJURED IN AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENT

With Three Others Was Passenger in Car Forced Into Ditch Near Elmira Heights; Driver Exonerated

Fataly injured, when the car in which she was riding in company with Miss Helen Beck, of Corning, and two Elmira young men, returned just east of O'Hanlon's crossing on the Elmira Corning road, Miss Ruth Garty, popular and talented vocalist of 88 West Fifth street, died shortly after 9 o'clock last night, while she was being rushed in an ambulance to an Elmira hospital in a vain effort to save her life. Death resulted from multiple fractures of the skull. It is thought that when the sedan, carrying the party, was either thrown through the windshield or through the right front door window, and her right hand was practically severed from her hand at the wrist.

Miss Helen Beck, the other Corning girl in the party, was taken into the machine of a passenger motor and brought to Corning Hospital where it was determined that she is suffering from minor lacerations and a slight shock. At the hospital this morning it was reported that she was unaware of the fatal consequences of the accident which resulted in the death of her girl friend.

Robert Charles, 13 year old Elmira youth and considered an expert machine operator, was the driver of the car at the time of the accident. Mr. Charles sustained minor cuts and bruises, of a not serious nature, which necessitated his removal to St. Joseph's Hospital. Miss Garty's car, which was also taken to the hospital, was discharged within a short time.

In Elmira this morning, it was stated on authority that the accident was the result of the action of a passing motorist, whose identity has not been cleared up, but who is said to have forced the car, in which the unfortunate party was riding, into the ditch in passing. A complete investigation of the circumstances of the accident was made last night by Chemung County Coroner Dr. S. Tracy Hamilton and by Sheriff I. E. Gibson and according to preliminary reports from Elmira exonerates the driver from all evidences of criminal negligence.

According to the statement made to Coroner Hamilton by Mr. Harding following the accident, he and Mr. Charles had driven to Corning early in the evening to keep an appointment with the two girls. After meeting the girls it was suggested that they motor to Elmira and Mr. Charles, who is regarded as an efficient driver took the wheel with Miss Garty in the front seat and Miss Helen Beck in the rear. Driving toward Horseheads, they took the right hand turn which leads onto the cement highway there and had driven over the slight hill. They were just leaving the cement portion of the highway when they passed the narrow bridge near O'Hanlon's crossing, when the other car coming from the direction of Elmira, forced by Charles to swerve to the extreme right of the highway to avoid being struck by the other machine was traveling about 30 miles an hour. At this point there is a slight depression at the side of the road and when the wheels of the car struck this depression, the car tilted a few feet and then toppled over, coming to a stop on its side.

Mr. Harding says that he expected to himself, as did Miss Beck and Mr. Charles, that the machine was unaccounted. Several minutes elapsed before the car was in another car stopped and assisted in raising the sedan which was demolished. The body of Miss Garty was taken from under the machine and removed to the side of the road while an ambulance was called. All four were bleeding profusely. Several passing motorists stopped to see what could be given and among them were Miss Mrs. E. B. Peterson, of this city.

Miss Garty and Mr. Charles were placed in the ambulance and taken to St. Joseph's Hospital and Miss Beck was put in a car headed for Corning, while Mr. Harding was carried to Elmira in another car.

Immediately upon reaching the hospital Miss Garty was taken to Corning Hospital. Dr. S. Tracy Hamilton, Mr. Charles' physician, stated that Miss Garty's life was extinct. The injuries of Miss Garty, which were not dressed by another doctor.

Mr. Harding after receiving attention went to police headquarters where he was examined by Coroner Hamilton and Sheriff I. E. Gibson. Mr. Harding was also taken to the hospital for J. Brickwood and Frank Spaulding repaired to the scene of the accident and examined it.

The wrecked car was removed to the local garage. News of the tragedy and of the death of this prominent girl, who was the center of the community and who had made friends in every part of the city, has been a source of grief to many. It is believed that she was possessed of a large circle of friends.

Hikers Lose Their Way and Go to Addison. Losing their way while hiking around Spencer Hill, about 20 youngsters from the vicinity of Walnut, West Second and Chestnut streets, hiked over Spencer Hill to Addison and returned, via the state road.

Miss Mary Garty chaperoned the party which started out gayly enough to hike to Mullholland, eat their lunch and return. Losing their way they wandered on until they arrived stuck in Addison. From there they started home by the state road. In spite of protests, some rode while about 15 walked all the way home. Two rode horseback as far as Painted Post while the man who was riding the horse walked beside them. Another couple rode on the garage wagon and two more on their other wagon.

Their experiences have made them plan to take a map with them on their next hike.

PAGE'S WORK IS ENDORSED

Letter from Administrator Roberts to Sheriff Givens Credit for Co-operation. Although he admits he has had some unpleasant experiences of late with objectionable informants, E. C. Roberts, prohibition administrator, in a letter to Sheriff W. P. Page points out that his information furnished him, indeed he praises the work of Sheriff Page and urges him to continue as he has.

In his letter to Mr. Page the administrator says that he has been criticized for acts of professional vengeance, and that he has been accused of being a perjurer and extortionist. This, however, in no way prohibits him from accepting and acting upon, as promptly as the needs of the service will permit, voluntary information from those good citizens who are taking a heartiest interest in assisting us to enforce the law, which will place in my hands, or information or evidence of any other law enforcement agency which will be a step in a similar manner," he declared.

The fact that Mr. Roberts had said that he was through with "stool pigeons" caused many to believe that it would seriously handicap the work of Sheriff Page who has been gathering evidence in the case against the federal agents active. In fact, Mr. Page has several bills now pending in the legislature for the federal agents for such work.

Mr. Page said the work of Sheriff Givens, Mr. Page's superior, has been a most valuable record. In fact, he has said many times before here and in Washington that outside your own self, I am certain that our state would gain a most valuable record.
